Young Children Becoming Curriculum Marg Sellers,2013-07-31 This book contests a tradition and convention in educational thinking that dichotomises children and curriculum by developing the notion of re con ceiving children in curriculum By presenting an innovative research project in which she worked with children to share their understandings of the internationally renowned Te Wh riki curriculum Marg Sellers explores what the curriculum means to children and how it works as demonstrated in games they played In generating different ways for thinking the author draws upon her work with the philosophical imaginaries of Gilles Deleuze and Felix Guattari whose ideas shape both the content and the non linear structure of this book Topics covered include Rhizomes rhizo methodology and rhizoanalysis Plateaus De territorialising lines of flight Dynamic spaces The notion of empowerment This assemblage of Deleuzo Guattarian imaginaries generates ways for thinking differently about children s complex interrelationships with curriculum and opens possibilities for re con ceiving both reconceiving and receiving children s understandings within adult conceptions of how curriculum works for young children This book will be of interest to early childhood students scholars and practitioners alike also appealing to those interested in philosophical theoretical and practical understandings of curriculum in general
