Edmond Gastineau,Rudolf Tombo,1889 Cities, Cultures, Conversations Richard Marback,Patrick Bruch,Jill Eicher,1998 Often the urban experience and its issues are out of reach for the non urbanite This book helps bring that experience closer to new writers by developing the experience as a context for writing and connecting it to real life experiences of the writer Over 52 readings focus on various urban issue and realities such as neighborhood and community crime art city life what happened in LA style and more Writers who want to expand their writing skills to more controversial urban issues How Like an Angel Came I Down A. Bronson Alcott,Alice O. Howell,1991-06 Every now and then the past yields up one of its lost treasures This book is just such a gem Bronson Alcott friend and sometimes mentor to Emerson and Thoreau in Concord was also a visionary educator who believed that the psyche of a child already carries within it the imprint of spirit and wisdom At his school in Boston in the 1830s he held this extraordinary series of conversations on such themes as spirit consciousness conscience love humility the Holy Ghost and the knower Record of a School Catharine Maria Sedgwick,1836 Record of Mr. Alcott's School Elizabeth Palmer Peabody,1874 This historic book may have numerous typos missing text or index Purchasers can download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher 1874 Not illustrated Excerpt to the discipline of the school It was found very useful at the end of the school hours to recall to the children all that had passed Some of the individual reproofs are now omitted as not suited for publication but a few are retained to show their style and nature I here also omit the details of all the lessons excepting those on the spelling defining and reading of English which were always the first exercises of the morning and are made more especially subservient to the main objects of the school Before beginning the Journal I must however premise in justice both to the school and myself that my record being made at the moment a great deal was omitted I found it impossible to seize and fix with my pen many of the most beautiful turns and episodes of the conversation especially as I took part myself and the various associations of thought in so large a company often produced transitions too abrupt for my tardy pen to follow and graceful humorous and touching turns of thought and expression which could hardly be recorded by the most skilful reporter December 29th When I arrived at the school room just after nine o clock this morning I found all the children sitting quietly at their desks engaged in writing their journals or their spelling lessons During this time of silent study Mr Alcott generally walks about the room preparing pencils and pens at each seat and making remarks For the study of this lesson an hour is generally appropriated which gives time for the journalists also to learn it About a quarter before ten Mr Alcott takes the seven younger members of this spelling class as they cannot use a dictionary very intelligently and lets them spell the words over to him and he tells them their meanings Of Record of a School Elizabeth Palmer Peabody,1836 The Pageant of America, a Pictorial History of the United States ,1926 The Dial ,1843 A magazine for literature philosophy and religion The Pageant of America: The American spirit in letters, by S.T. Williams Ralph Henry Gabriel,1926 The Law and Method in Spirit-culture Charles Lane,1843 The Pageant of America: The American spirit in letters, by S.T. Williams ,1926 In Context Ann Merle Feldman, Ellen McManus, Nancy Downs,2005 In Context is a thematically organized reader which invites students to use reading and writing to participate in ongoing cultural conversations In Contexts units focus on four ongoing conversations that have an impact on events in the world and that affect the way we see ourselves These units include what it means to be authentic how we establish a sense of place how to get people involved in civic dialogues and how the increasingly global economy affects us as workers and consumers The essays dialogues editorials newspaper articles and other documents included in this book reflect moments in these conversations Both the readings and the writing assignments encourage students to see the ways in which others use writing to make things happen and ways in which they themselves can use writing to participate in these various local national and global conversations What sets In Context apart from other readers is 1 its thoughtful and sustained attention to rhetorical issues students are introduced to four rhetorical concepts situation genre language and consequences and are asked to use these as both a reader and writer 2 the fact that students are asked to do more than critique culture and to focus on how societies and individuals use writing and reading to do work to affect outcomes and to achieve results and 3 the inclusion of assignments that allow students to compose not only analytical essays but other genres as well reports letters to the editor proposals and more
