Discovered in 1947 the Dead Sea Scrolls are a collection of ancient Israelite documents many of which were written by a Jewish sectarian community at Qumran living in self exile from the priesthood of the Second Temple This first book length study of the rhetoric of these texts illustrates how the Essenes employed different rhetorics over time as they struggled to understand God s word and their mission to their people who seemed to have turned away from God and his purposes Applying methods of rhetorical analysis to six substantive texts Miq at Ma a eh ha Torah Rule of the Community Damascus Document Purification Rules Temple Scroll and Habakkuk Peshet Bruce McComiskey traces the Essenes use of rhetorical strategies based on identification dissociation entitlement and interpretation Through his analysis McComiskey uncovers a unique fascinating story of an ancient religious community that had sought to reintegrate into Temple life but dejected instead established itself as the new covenant people of God for this world only to turn ultimately to a trust in a metaphysical afterlife Presenting forms of ancient Jewish rhetoric
