Serpents of Eternity, Chaos, Kingship, and the Living Power of the Snake Ben Van Kerkwyk,2025-12-24 In Serpents of Eternity the most feared creature of the ancient world becomes the most sacred Across the temples tombs crowns and underworld passages of Egypt the serpent is never just an animal it is a living code protection and poison kingship and chaos renewal and annihilation This book plunges into the coiled heart of Egyptian symbolism revealing why cobras guarded thrones why serpents haunted the night journey of the sun and why the boundary between safety and destruction was imagined with fangs Written in a powerful immersive style for readers who crave mystery myth and meaning Serpents of Eternity transforms Egypt s snake lore into a full cosmic drama where every gate is a test every crown is a warning and every dawn is a victory that must be defended But the serpent s real power is what it still does to you It triggers something ancient in the nervous system attention awe fear and turns that reaction into a doorway toward deeper insight Moving from household protection to royal power technology from underworld guardians to the infinite loops of eternity this book reads like a forbidden manual of sacred boundaries how the Egyptians trained the mind sealed the soul and engineered permanence through symbols that still strike across time If you ve ever felt that Egypt hides a deeper system beneath the surface something older than history and sharper than belief this is your invitation to step through the threshold and meet the watcher in the grass
