Courtneys First Cruise:

Courtney's First Cruise Janice Lynne, 1996-01-01 Legless in Seabrook Ian Wood, 2019-10-26 This is a standalone companion novel to Shiftless in Galveston Neither Jade nor Jason had expected to run into the other on the last night of a poorly reviewed and curtain dropping play in some out of the way community theater And especially not in such embarrassing circumstances when Jade driving a wheelchair needed help in the handicapped non friendly bathroom and like right now Jade had sworn off men perhaps forever after her bad marriage was finally over several years ago Jason had no interest in women not after that really dysfunctional relationship a half dozen years before They were simply too much trouble for him to cope with How a relationship started from such mortifying circumstances was a wonder to both of them but how it lasted and grew ever stronger when the obstacles began to mount starting with an ill fated Gulf cruise was an honest to goodness miracle

Class, Place, and Higher Education Alexandra Coleman, 2022-05-19 Higher education is seen to be a means to the good life and is a dominant way societies distribute hope for social mobility But does higher education deliver on its promise This book attends to the hopes experiences and trajectories of working class students and graduates from Western Sydney an area that is imagined from the outside to be a place of lack and stagnation the other Sydney This book challenges the myth that participation in higher education necessarily leads to upward social mobility and traces how the rewards of higher education are unevenly distributed It considers how visions of a good life are class differentiated and makes an argument for the significance of place when examining experiences of higher education Rather than focus on university as a means to becoming middle class Class Place and Higher Education examines how university becomes a means to a good life not the good life a good life that is embedded in place in working class places like Western Sydney and one that becomes more complex and ambivalent through the process of going to university Through an attention to the existential and social dimensions of mobility Alexandra Coleman develops the term homely mobility to describe the pull of people and place and small scale degrees of mobility in place to a better street the suburb next door the university down the road Structural inequalities are an embodied dimension of social being and action and through the lens of homely mobility this book affords insights into broader processes of social reproduction and transformation

Expert Witness Edmund Strong, 2020-05-20 Forget what you've seen in all the high gloss airport movies Enter the unvarnished world of air traffic control aircraft accident investigation and government cover ups A world where courtrooms are used to distort facts and oaths to tell the truth have no meaning where witnesses are manipulated and the stakes of winning and losing are destroyed careers and multimillion dollar rewards Michael Edmunds an expert witness in air traffic control takes on the case of his life when a private aircraft and a commuter airliner operating under radar control and assigned different altitudes collide in the rain soaked night skies over Upstate New York The normal investigation and legal process is accelerated by a US senator whose wife died in the crash High powered government officials attempt to cover up mistakes recorded
