Beast Or Angel:

Beast or Angel? Rene Dubos, 2017-09-29 The world of things is different now from what it was half a century ago but Rene Dubos doubts that there have been basic changes in life itself in those attitudes and activities needs and yearning that are the most important for happiness and suffering for hope and despair the differences between humanity and animality Sophisticated and civilized as we may be we have retained from our distant ancestors the ability to derive profound satisfaction from the small happenings of daily life Beast or Angel attempts to trace the origins of needs and yearnings that have always been those of humankind everywhere and always In this search Dubos expresses the same concerns and uses the same words when speaking of the past the present or the future the reason being that the biological and psychological characteristics of humankind have remained essentially the same for at least fifty millennia We are human to the extent that we live according to certain principles which have a human quality This quality has emerged and continues to emerge from the choices that we make throughout our individual lives and that humankind has made from the beginning of its existence To be human is to be able and willing to choose among the options that are offered to the human species by the natural order of things This book examines human species not only on the basis of the biological and psychological attributes it shares with animal species but more by identifying its choices throughout pre history and history

Angel Norman Jacob Nadorff, 2025-07-26 It is well known that homo sapiens shared the Earth for thousands of years with Neanderthals and other humanoid species which eventually disappeared for reasons that are not entirely understood But what if one of those other species had somehow managed to survive in the frigid fringes of the inhabitable world and were still with us today Angel tells the story of Angel Gabriel a homo cognitus more commonly known as Beasts who is adopted by sapiens parents at birth on Unimak Island Alaska Through their love and nurturing and aided by his adoptive grandfather s powerful political connections Angel humbly enters the hostile sapiens world and eventually thrives against all odds He not only changes minds and history but also helps forge better conditions for his species thus ensuring their longtime survival and prosperity Along the way Angel interacts with renowned religious political and media figures eventually becoming a celebrity and leader in his own right Author Norman Jacob Nadorff history of the teapot the essays in this collection contribute to scholarly debates across a wide range of disciplines Addressing the question of whether eclectic relationships in Victorian decorative arts are actually self conscious iconographic schemes or merely random juxtapositions of assorted objects Rethinking the Interior c 1867 1896 Aestheticism and Arts and Crafts argues that no firm demarcation exists between the two movements examined here In the process the contributors explore a wide variety of interiors in locations as diverse as London Cornwall New England and Tangiers Analyzing spaces public and private sacred and secular the volume poses several historiographic challenges Drawing on a wide range of feminist and queer theories the book questions the identification of nineteenth century interiors as exclusively female or family spaces The collection also addresses the complex and temporary character of interiors and responds to the recent scholarly trend to return questions of feeling and embodied experience to the study of the decorative arts
