Holy Land. Archaeology on Either Side AA.

VV.,2020-11-10T00:00:00+01:00 The title of the volume may be a little perplexing Archaeology on Either Side But on either side of what The picture we chose for the front cover might give an indication of the answer This image shows two sides of the River Jordan the Israeli side and the Jordanian side both part of the Holy Land Or we might understand the either side of our topic in another way that is archaeology both as the study of artifacts and archaeology as the study of literary sources In the contributions the reader will find all these topics and much more essays on excavations or archaeological findings in the Holy Land as defined above and essays on literary sources linked to the history of the ancient Near East especially in the time of the Christian Common Era CE The book is made up of three main sections Excavations and Topographical Surveys Architecture Decorations and Art Epigraphy and Sigillography Some articles touch on more than one specific section so they may be found between sections From the Passion to the Church of the Holy Sepulchre Jordan J. Ryan,2021-01-14 Since the early 4th century Christian pilgrims and visitors to Judea and Galilee have worshipped at and been inspired by monumental churches erected at sites traditionally connected with the life and ministry of Jesus of Nazareth This book examines the history and archaeology of early Christian holy sites and traditions connected with specific places in order to understand them as interpretations of Jesus and to explore them as instantiations of memories of him Ryan s overarching aim is to construe these places as instantiations of what historian Pierre Nora has called lieux de m moires sites where memory crystallizes and where possible to track the course and development of the traditions underlying them from their genesis in the Gospel narratives to their eventual solidification in the form of pilgrimage sites So doing will bring rarely considered evidence to the study of early Christian memory which in turn helps to illuminate the person of Jesus himself in both history and reception Testimony of the Writings of the New Church Concerning Themselves Emanuel Swedenborg,1920

Historic Churches Warwick Rodwell,Kirsty A. Rodwell,1977 Presents a survey of churches in the Diocese of Chelmsford particularly in the Archdeaconry of Colchester designed to illuminate the problems and potentials of church archaeology the study of the whole historic fabric and environment of ecclesiastical buildings The survey reveals in detail for the first time the very serious extent of the numerous destructive agencies at work on our churches graveyards monuments furnishings and fittings it is urged that this destruction be drastically reduced and that proper provision for recording the evidence be made where destruction cannot be avoided Case studies are presented and a gazetteer of the 220 parish churches and church sites in the Archdeaconry of Colchester follows Studies in Armenian Art Nira Stone,2019-07-29 Nira Stone 1938 2013 was a scholar of Armenian and Byzantine Art Her broad and close acquaintance with the field of Armenian art history covered many fields of Armenian artistic creativity Nira Stone made notable contributions to the study of Armenian manuscript painting mosaics and other forms of artistic expression Of particular interests are her researches on this art in its historical and religious contexts such as the study of apocryphal elements in Armenian Gospel iconography the place of the mosaics of

Jerusalem in the context of mosaics in Byzantine Palestine and of the interplay between religious movements such as hesychasm and Armenian manuscript painting

The Apocalypse Or Book of Revelations, Explained According to the Spiritual Sense, Wherein are Disclosed the Arcana Therein Foretold which Have Been Hitherto Hidden Emanuel Swedenborg,1901

Jerusalem in the Time of the Crusades Adrian J. Boas,2001-09-06

Adrian Boas's combined use of historical and archaeological evidence together with first hand accounts written by visiting pilgrims results in a multi faceted perspective on Crusader Jerusalem.
