Conversation Pieces:

Conversation Pieces Kurt Brown, Harold Schechter, 2007 An utterly delightful collection of responses to poems written across the centuries these modern poems are not only engaging themselves but also capable of casting surprising new light on the poems that inspired them

Conversation Pieces Janet Jaymes, 2004 Born of the Sun begins with the awakening of Miatron High Priest of Upper and Lower Egypt to his divine mission He is disheartened by the fact he is nearing the completion of his life with only banal repetitious spiritual ritual to show for his many years of existence Suddenly he hears a voice telling him the bloodline of the Pharaohs has been corrupted by interbreeding and instructing him to seek a woman of pure blood to be the new queen to the aging Amunhotep III He and three young apprentices set out in secret to search for this maiden They must each find her through their own intuition as to her identity for her protection is a secret even to her own family Found in a small village near the Caspian Sea young Tyi future Queen of Egypt returns with them and is placed under the guardianship of the temples until she becomes of age Once she begins her flow she is married to the Pharaoh Her winning personality and uncanny wisdom soon make her the favorite wife and advisor to Amunhotep III She soon becomes pregnant with Akhenaton Opposing her position are another son of the Pharaoh and some of the Amun priests They plot to prevent the birth of ascension to the throne through a number of maneuvers Miatron and Tyi speak consistently to the child in the womb to give it precognition upon its birth Born Amunhotep IV the child is sheltered by mother and High Priest to prevent his corruption by the Amun priests Finally forced to enter his training for succession to the throne the young prince ignores most of the temple teachings in favor of those of Tyi and Miatron Immediately upon his father's death he disappears called to training by the ancient masters hidden away in caves near the Nile halfway between Thebes and Memphis Inside these caves are secret Temples of Light there since the days of the lost continent of Atlantis During his absence a number of ploys are attempted by his half brother Akenset son of one of the lesser wives and other discontented officials to defer his coronation in Akenset's favor The popular Tyi and Miatron solely prevent this now on his deathbed Upon his return Amunhotep IV is crowned under his new name Akhenaton For a time Akhenaton attempts to bring about a gradual movement away from the corrupt Amun priesthood to the one God Aton and Source of All Creation from the Central Sun This was not an original idea as he was taught in the Temples of Light but a return to Source which had been diluted by the myriad of gods that filled the Amun temples of Egypt and Babylon Resistance to change was entrenched by a priesthood enriched by a public only too willing to pay for their supplications to the angry gods instilled by irreverent predecessors to maintain control Akhenaton finally felt he was left with no alternative but to destroy the symbols of the lesser gods in the temples This further alienated him from the priests and many government officials He lost the loyalty of the army foreign minister and minister of affairs by his pacifist beliefs refusing to support military ventures or to increase requested taxes to support them Tyi was a unifying force strong in support of her son but flexible in negotiation Both she and her son were popular with the masses His half brother Akenset now High Priest of Upper and Lower Egypt was displeasing to all Always in the front of Akhenaton s mind was the vision of a City of Light to be located near the Temple of Light in the caves Finally left with no choice but to remove his government from the corruption of Thebes he began the construction of the city Akhetaton His loyal and adept mother remained in Thebes to outmaneuver the government officials and priests left behind His beautiful and charming queen Nefretiti remained to entertain the Conversation Pieces Grant H. Kester,2013-04-15 Grant Kester discusses the disparate network of artists collectives united by a desire to create new forms of understanding through creative dialogue that crosses boundaries of race religion culture

The Conversation Piece Desmond Shawe-Taylor,2009 The Conversation Piece is an intriguing contradiction the high life group but caught informally off guard Popular in seventeenth century Dutch painting it developed to include sporting events and Grand Tourists and reached its apogee in the eighteenth century in the masterpieces created by Johan Zoffany for his English patrons including George III This new publication accompanies the first exhibition on this subject for over thirty years presenting early Dutch and Flemish genre paintings against their successors in the informal portraiture of Stubbs and Hogarth as well as iconic works by Zoffany himself It also provides a unique opportunity to connect the study of the conversation in eighteenth century English art to its seventeenth century European predecessors Book Jacket

Conversation Pieces Mario Praz,1971 Professor Praz traces the history of the conversation piece which is an intimate group portrait usually of small dimensions and is a genre which arose in the Low countries flourished in 18th century England and declined with the invention of photography

Fashioning the Self: Identity and Style in British Culture Emily Priscott,2023-06-06 Fashioning the Self Identity and Style in British Culture offers an eclectic approach to contemporary fashion studies Taking a broad definition of British culture this collection of essays explores the significance of style to issues such as colonialism race gender and class embracing topics as diverse as eighteenth century portraiture literary dress culture and Edwardian working class glamour Examining the emblematic power of garments themselves and the context in which they are styled this work interrogates the ways that personal style can itself decontextualize garments to radically reframe their meanings Using an intentionally eclectic range of subjects from an interdisciplinary perspective this collection builds on the work of theorists such as Aileen Ribeiro Vika Martina Plock Cheryl Buckley and Hilary Fawcett to examine the social significance of personal style while also highlighting the diversity of British culture itself

The Global Eighteenth Century Felicity Nussbaum,2003-08-15 These essays explore both literal and metaphorical crossings of the globe addressing the cultural significance of maps paintings travel writing tourist manuals cultural identities island gardens and other topics in order to lend insight to our perception of global culture during the long 18th century

Ghost-haunted land Declan Long,2017-08-21 Since the signing of the Good Friday Agreement in 1998 the formal end point of the thirty year modern Troubles contemporary visual artists have offered diverse responses to post conflict circumstances in Northern Ireland In

Ghost Haunted Land the first book length examination of post Troubles contemporary art Declan Long highlights artists who have reflected on the ongoing anxieties of aftermath This wide ranging study addresses developments in video photography painting sculpture performance and more offering detailed analyses of key works by artists based in Ireland and beyond including 2014 Turner Prize winner Duncan Campbell and internationally acclaimed filmmaker and photographer Willie Doherty Post Troubles contemporary art is discussed in the context of both local transformations and global operations and many of the main points of reference in the book come from broader debates about the place and purpose of contemporary art in today s world Aesthetics, Gender, and Disability in Interactive Digital Art and Performance Art Phaedra

Shanbaum,2024-11-29 This book explores the tensions between aesthetics gender and disability in contemporary digital media installations and performance art Notions of agency and subjectivity are connected to four contemporary political issues artificial intelligence migration and political violence contemporary medical technologies and practices and the Anthropocene and analyzed against a Western legacy of utopian and dystopian ideas and desires that have shaped and continue to shape what it means to be human The book s main argument is that agency and subjectivity are not universal attributes rather they are socio material entanglements and contextually bound enactments that are strategically negotiated by the subject Thus they involve conflict struggle and other forms of resistance The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history media and cultural studies disability studies and gender studies Colonizing Nature Beth Fowkes Tobin,2011-06-07 With its control of sugar plantations in the Caribbean and tea cotton and indigo production in India Britain in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries dominated the global economy of tropical agriculture In Colonizing Nature Beth Fowkes Tobin shows how dominion over the tropics as both a region and an idea became central to the way in which Britons imagined their role in the world Tobin examines georgic poetry landscape portraiture natural history writing and botanical prints produced by Britons in the Caribbean the South Pacific and India to uncover how each played a crucial role in developing the belief that the tropics were simultaneously paradisiacal and in need of British intervention and management Her study examines how slave garden portraits denied the horticultural expertise of the slaves how the East India Company hired such artists as William Hodges to paint and thereby Anglicize the landscape and gardens of British controlled India and how writers from Captain James Cook to Sir James E Smith depicted tropical lands and plants Just as mastery of tropical nature and especially its potential for agricultural productivity became key concepts in the formation of British imperial identity Colonizing Nature suggests that intellectual and visual mastery of the tropics through the creation of art and literature accompanied material appropriations of land labor and natural resources Tobin convincingly argues that the depictions of tropical plants gardens and landscapes that circulated in the British imagination provide a key to understanding the forces that shaped the British Empire Framing Childhood in Eighteenth-century English Periodicals and Prints, 1689-1789 Anja Müller,2009 Shedding light on an important and neglected topic in childhood studies Anja Müller

interrogates how different concepts of childhood proliferated and were construed in eighteenth century periodicals and satirical prints In examining links between text and image M ller uncovers the role these media played in the genealogy of childhood prior to the 1790s challenging the myth that situates the origin of childhood in late eighteenth century England

The Participator in Contemporary Art Kaija Kaitavuori,2018-08-30 The early 21st century has seen contemporary art make continued use of audience participation in which the spectator becomes part of the artwork itself In this book Kaija Kaitavuori claims that the participator is a new artistic role that does not fall under the auspices of artist or spectator and in proving such she devises a four group typology of involvement Her classification distinguishes between different forms of engagement and identifies their specific features The key criteria she proposes are how concepts of authorship and ownership shift in relation to collectively created work how contracts regulating the use and production of shared work are arranged and the extent to which involvement in making art can be regarded as democratic This highly original book thus offers students and teachers the tools with which to improve their understanding of participatory art and removes the confusing terminology that has characterized so many other discussions
