Conversations With French Philosophers:

Conversations with French Philosophers Florian Rötzer, 1995 This volume consists of interviews with eight contemporary French philosophers The main issue is how contemporary French philosophy is received in Germany particularly by thinkers such as Juergen Habermas who tend to characterize the French as irrationalists French Philosophers Talking , 1991

Badiou and the Philosophers , 2013-03-14 Between 1965 and 1968 the celebrated French philosopher Alain Badiou hosted a televised series in which he interviewed some of the most influential contemporary philosophers of the period including Michel Foucault Paul Ricoeur Michel Henry and Michel Serres This book presents the first English language translation of those interviews Although Badiou had yet to publish the books that would go on to mark him out as the leading thinker of his generation Being and Event and Logics of Worlds his unique approach and highly original ideas are present in each discussion and the interviews present his philosophical origins in a lively and engaging context More importantly these highly accessible and entertaining interviews provide a snapshot of French philosophy in the 1960s setting the scene for the very public and political context of philosophy in the period immediately preceding the events of May 68 where philosophy played a crucial role The book includes a new essay by Badiou in which he reflects on the project 30 years on Jean-Francois

Liotard Jean-Francois Lyotard, 2025-10-02 With contributions selected from the last fifteen years of his life this second volume of Jean Fran ois Lyotard s interviews and debates includes hard to find and previously untranslated material Taking place between 1984 and 1997 they follow in the wake of Lyotard s most notable publications including The Postmodern Condition 1979 and The Differend 1983 Whilst continuing to contest and reconfigure the claims of these writings Lyotard and his interlocutors help to contextualise the questions raised within the fields of art philosophy literature and politics Discussions in Paris and London include contributions from thinkers such as Philippe Lacoue Labarthe Christine Buci Glucksmann and Alain Badiou whilst significant interviews elsewhere in Europe North and South America elucidate the consequences of the varied reception given to his work The importance of Kant Freud and Wittgenstein is readily apparent as are the themes now closely associated with Lyotard the inhuman infancy and resistance to the system These interviews and debates record an evident delight in the activity of thinking which is not about rhetorical flourish or rehashing staid assumptions but of grappling with some of the most important questions confronting thought today Conversations with Isaiah Berlin Ramin Jahanbegloo, 2011-10-10 An illuminating and witty dialogue with one of the greatest intellectual figures of the twentieth century Ramin Jahanbegloo s interview with Isaiah Berlin grew into a series of five conversations which offer an intimate view of Berlin and his ideas They include discussions on pluralism and liberty as well as the thinkers and writers who influenced Berlin This revised edition provided an excellent introduction to Berlin s thought Ramin Jahanbegloo is an Iranian philosopher who has taught in Europe and North America In 2006 he was imprisoned for several months in Iran He is currently teaching Political Philosophy at Toronto University Though like Our Lord and Socrates he does not publish much he thinks and says a great deal and has had an enormous influence on our times Maurice Bowra Berlin never talks down to the interviewer Conversations here means the minds of the interviewed and interviewer meet on equal terms in language that is transparently clear informed witty and entertaining Stephen Spender He is wise without seeming pompous witty without seeming trivial affectionate without seeming sentimental Michael Ignatieff Isaiah Berlin has for fifty years in this talkative and quarrelsome city Oxford been something special admired by all and disliked by no one a benevolent super don John Bayley <http://berlin.wolf.ox.ac.uk> Jean-François Lyotard Jean-François Lyotard,2019 Jean Fran ois Lyotard 1924 1998 was one of the most important French philosophers of the Twentieth Century His impact has been felt across many disciplines sociology cultural studies art theory and politics This volume presents a diverse selection of interviews conversations and debates which relate to the five decades of his working life both as a political militant experimental philosopher and teacher Including hard to find interviews and previously untranslated material this is the first time that interviews with Lyotard have been presented as a collection Key concepts from Lyotard s thought the differend the postmodern the immaterial are debated and discussed across different time periods prompted by specific contexts and provocations In addition there are debates with other thinkers including Emmanuel Levinas and Jacques Derrida which may be less familiar to an Anglophone audience These debates and interviews help to contextualise Lyotard highlighting the importance of Marx Freud Kant and Wittgenstein in addition to the Jewish thought which accompanies the questions of silence justice and presence that pervades Lyotard s thinking Abstract French Composition and Conversation Joseph Brown,Dwight Ingersoll Chapman,1928

French Music and Jazz in Conversation Deborah Mawer,2014-12-04 French concert music and jazz often enjoyed a special creative exchange across the period 1900 65 French modernist composers were particularly receptive to early African American jazz during the interwar years and American jazz musicians especially those concerned with modal jazz in the 1950s and early 1960s exhibited a distinct affinity with French musical impressionism However despite a general if contested interest in the cultural interplay of classical music and jazz few writers have probed the specific French music jazz relationship in depth In this book Deborah Mawer sets such musical interplay within its historical cultural and critical analytical contexts offering a detailed yet accessible account of both French and American perspectives Blending intertextuality with more precise borrowing techniques Mawer presents case studies on the musical interactions of a wide range of composers and performers including Debussy Satie Milhaud Ravel Jack Hylton George Russell Bill Evans and Dave Brubeck A Philosophical Conversation. Translated from the French of Diderot. By E. N. Denis Diderot,1875

Dissertations and Discussions: Political, Philosophical, and Historical: Vindication of the French revolution of February, 1848; in reply to Lord Brougham and others. Appendix. Enfranchisement of women. Dr. Whewell on Moral philosophy. Grote's History of Greece. A few words on non-intervention. The slave power. Utilitarianism John Stuart Mill,1874 Derek Attridge in Conversation Derek Attridge,2015-05-01 This volume of conversation not only provides a succinct philosophical biography that highlights the wide range of Attridge's interests. It likewise foregrounds his energetic engagements with literary theory, poetics and stylistics as well as his reassessments of contemporary philosophy and literary ideas, specifically those pertaining to the work of Jacques Derrida, James Joyce and J. M. Coetzee. Readers will find in this book a wonderful balancing act as Attridge negotiates the dynamics between the orthodoxies of critical practice and the strategic interventions of deconstructive reading. This book, with an appendix of a chronological listing of Attridge's publications, is an accessible and provocative introduction to the ideas of one of the most brilliant critical voices and generous presences in literary studies in the Anglophone world.
