Exploring Asian-Pacific Co-operatives in Theory and Practice Morris Altman, Akira Kurimoto, 2025-11-25 Exploring Asian Pacific Cooperatives in Theory and Practice Resilience and Thriving between the State and the Market investigates Asian Pacific coop models mainly through the analytical lenses of Asian Pacific researchers It consists of theoretical and empirical analyses on transversal themes from interdisciplinary studies and national case studies covering multiple sectors and countries It focuses on a variety of challenging issues using different analytical approaches to cooperative challenges in the Asian Pacific and examines the traditional dichotomy between the State and the Market Explores how coops in the Asian Pacific develop as successful business models providing a broader understanding of cooperatives in different national and cultural settings Investigates why coops succeed or fail in the Asian Pacific region helping readers to understand under what conditions coops can deliver more equitable and sustainable growth Utilizes a case study approach with the second half of the book featuring national case studies covering numerous sectors and countries in the Asian Pacific

Mutual, Cooperative and Employee-Owned Businesses in the Asia Pacific Chris Rowley, Jonathan Michie, 2017-10-02 The 25 years leading up to the international financial crisis have been depicted as capitalism unleashed containing deregulation privatisation demutualisation and financialisation Yet remarkably given this economic and political context co operatives and mutuals appear to have been gaining ground in many countries albeit modestly even before the international financial crisis and the resulting global recession from which the global economy is still only slowly recovering The 2007 2008 international financial crisis called into question how appropriate the shareholder owned model is certainly if it is allowed to dominate the financial services sector However the International Co operative Alliance is determined to make the mutual and co operative sector of the economy a dynamic sustainable and increasingly important sector of the global economy This book looks at the contribution of co operative mutual and employee owned firms to the Asia Pacific economy both currently and prospectively and the challenges the standard Western model faces regarding employment and output It also looks at the role of Governments the nature of co operatives in China and the role of the state and the future prospects for cross border growth of co operative and mutual business within Asia Pacific and more widely This book was originally published as a Special Issue of Asia Pacific Business Review
