Calvin's First Catechism:

Calvin's First Catechism I. John Hesselink, 1997-01-01 John Calvin's first catechism originally written in French in 1537 and then in Latin in 1538 provides a valuable clear and concise introduction to his thought. Now for the first time readers have available Ford Lewis Battles' English translation of the 1538 Latin edition and a current discussion of it in the same volume. This commentary on the first catechism also utilizes other sources such as Calvin's Commentaries and Institutes as well as the latest Calvin research. This volume is an excellent introduction to Calvin's theology and will be useful as a text for college and seminary courses as well as church discussion groups. The Columbia Series in Reformed Theology represents a joint commitment by Columbia Theological Seminary and Westminster John Knox Press to provide theological resources from the Reformed tradition for the church today. This series examines theological and ethical issues that confront church and society in our own particular time and place.

Volumes in this series are intended for scholars, theologians, pastors, and lay people who are committed to faith in search of understanding.

Font of Pardon and New Life Lyle D. Bierma, 2021 Font of Pardon and New Life is a study of the historical development of John Calvin's doctrine of baptism, both adult or believer baptism and infant baptism. In a chronological examination of Calvin's writings, his Institutes, commentaries on the Bible, catechisms, polemical treatises, and consensus documents, the book addresses the question of what in Calvin's view spiritually takes place in an individual when he or she is baptized and it analyzes the impact of Calvin's baptismal doctrine on the major Reformed confessions and catechisms of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries.

Covenant: A Vital Element of Reformed Theology, 2021-11-29 Covenant: A Vital Element of Reformed Theology provides a multi-disciplinary reflection on the theme of the covenant from historical, biblical, theological, and systematic theological perspectives. The interaction between exegesis and dogmatics in the volume reveals the potential and relevance of this biblical motif. It proves to be vital in building bridges between God's revelation in the past and the actual question of how to live with him today.

Calvin's Company of Pastors Scott M. Manetsch, 2015 In Calvin's Company of Pastors, Scott Manetsch examines the pastoral theology and practical ministry activities of Geneva's reformed ministers from the time of Calvin's arrival in Geneva until the beginning of the seventeenth century. During these seven decades, more than 130 men were enrolled in Geneva's Venerable Company of Pastors as it was called, including notable reformed leaders such as Pierre Viret, Theodore Beza, Simon Goulart, Lambert Daneau, and Jean Diodati. Aside from these better-known epigones, Geneva's pastors from this period remain hidden from view, cloaked in Calvin's long shadow, even though they played a strategic role in preserving and reshaping Calvin's pastoral legacy. Making extensive use of archival materials, published sermons, catechisms, prayer books, personal correspondence, and theological writings, Manetsch offers an engaging and vivid portrait of pastoral life in sixteenth and early seventeenth century Geneva exploring the manner in which Geneva's ministers conceived of their pastoral office and performed their daily responsibilities of preaching public worship moral discipline catechesis administering the sacraments and pastoral care Manetsch demonstrates that Calvin and his colleagues were much more than ivory tower theologians or quasi agents of the state concerned primarily with dispensing theological information to their congregations or enforcing magisterial authority Rather they saw themselves as spiritual shepherds of Christ's Church and this self understanding shaped to a significant degree their daily work as pastors and preachers Calvinus sacrarum literarum interpres Herman J.
