Brand Xv:

Brands and Branding Rita Clifton, 2009-04-01 With contributions from leading brand experts around the world this valuable resource delineates the case for brands financial value social value etc and looks at what makes certain brands great It covers best practices in branding and also looks at the future of brands in the age of globalization Although the balance sheet may not even put a value on it a company s brand or its portfolio of brands is its most valuable asset For well known companies it has been calculated that the brand can account for as much as 80 percent of their market value This book argues that because of this and because of the power of not for profit brands like the Red Cross or Oxfam all organisations should make the brand their central organising principle guiding every decision and every action As well as making the case for brands and examining the argument of the anti globalisation movement that brands are bullies which do harm this second edition of Brands and Branding provides an expert review of best practice in branding covering everything from brand positioning to brand protection visual and verbal identity and brand communications Lastly the third part of the book looks at trends in branding branding in Asia especially in China and India brands in a digital world and the future for brands Written by 19 experts in the field Brands and Branding sets out to provide a better understanding of the role and importance of brands as well as a wealth of insights into how one builds and sustains a successful brand

Branding & AI Chahat Aggarwal, 2021-07-14 Open the doors to the world of branding and artificial intelligence the future of building efficient revenue Unlike anything else out there the book is an authentic and lucid representation of what branding is and the role it plays with artificial intelligence in the success of businesses The book would be singularly profound to entrepreneurs marketing professionals brand strategists students and anyone aspiring to take a hungry bite out of the knowledge repository built from first hand experiences of creating a brand from scratch and running it successfully in the digital age Highlights Explains in depth theories tools and models explaining the core ingredients of creating a successful brand Discusses how branding on an organizational and personal level is directly proportional to profit and return on investment along with measuring tools Includes case studies that dissect successful and unsuccessful marketing strategies of huge brands Covers the role of AI in branding with its potential in facilitating companies in achieving their goals through targeted marketing

Research Companion to Language and Country Branding Irene Theodoropoulou, Johanna Tovar, 2020-11-16 Research Companion to Language and Country Branding brings together entirely new interdisciplinary research conducted by scholars working on various sociolinguistic semiotic anthropological and discursive analytical aspects of country branding all over the world Branding is a process of identity construction whereby countries gain visibility and put themselves on the world map as distinctive entities by drawing on their history culture economy society geography and their people Through branding countries aim not only at establishing their uniqueness but also and perhaps most importantly at attracting tourism investments high quality human capital as well as at forging financial military political and social alliances Against this backdrop this volume explores how countries and regions imagine and portray others and themselves in terms of gender ethnicity and diversity today as well as the past In this respect the book examines how branding differs from other related policies and practices such as nation building banal nationalism and populism This volume is an essential reference for students researchers and practitioners with an interest in country nation and place branding processes
