Duties of the literature reader:

- Become an active member of a community of literature readers:
 - Read, listen to reading, or share the reading of various works.
 - Confront with others one's own interpretation. Discover - based on the exchange of opinions – that the same work allows for various interpretations. Anticipate the content of the story based on the information provided by the paratext and verify the anticipations as one progresses in the reading.
- Cooperate with the author in the construction of the meaning of the literary text.
- Value literary reading as an aesthetic experience.
- Adapt the reading modality to the purpose, to the genre or subgenre to which the work belongs, type of text.

Speaker's chores in interpersonal contexts:

- Expressing emotions through language.
- Comment: to take the floor to express an opinion, to share impressions personal, draw conclusions based on what has been read.

Contents:

- Different types of narrators in literary texts (stories): third-person narrator (omniscient narrator and observer narrator) and first-person narrator (narrator protagonist and witness narrator). Their characteristics.

Purposes:

- Generate conditions for students to perform as full readers of literature and allow to know other possible worlds.
- Contribute to helping the kids identify the different narrators that appear in the works addressed, account for their characteristics, and understand the difference between author and narrator of a literary work.
