Die Alte Pinakothek Muenchen:

The First Modern Museums of Art Carole Paul, 2012-11-16 In the eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries the first modern public museums of art civic state or national appeared throughout Europe setting a standard for the nature of such institutions that has made its influence felt to the present day Although the emergence of these museums was an international development their shared history has not been systematically explored until now Taking up that project this volume includes chapters on fifteen of the earliest and still major examples from the Capitoline Museum in Rome opened in 1734 to the Alte Pinakothek in Munich opened in 1836 These essays consider a number of issues such as the nature display and growth of the museums collections and the role of the institutions in educating the public The introductory chapters by art historian Carole Paul the volume's editor lay out the relationship among the various museums and discuss their evolution from private noble and royal collections to public institutions In concert the accounts of the individual museums give a comprehensive overview providing a basis for understanding how the collective emergence of public art museums is indicative of the cultural social and political shifts that mark the transformation from the early modern to the modern world The fourteen distinguished contributors to the book include Robert G W Anderson former director of the British Museum in London Paula Findlen Ubaldo Pierotti Professor of Italian History at Stanford University Thomas Gaetgens director of the Getty Research Institute and Andrew McClellan dean of academic affairs and professor of art history at Tufts University Show more Show less

Munich and Memory Gavriel D. Rosenfeld, 2023-12-22 Munich notorious in recent history as the capital of the Nazi movement is the site of Gavriel Rosenfeld's stimulating inquiry into the German collective memory of the Third Reich Rosenfeld shows with the aid of a wealth of photographs how the city's urban form developed after 1945 in direct reflection of its inhabitants' evolving memory of the Second World War and the Nazi dictatorship In the second half of the twentieth century the German people's struggle to come to terms with the legacy of Nazism has dramatically shaped nearly all dimensions of their political social and cultural life The area of urban development and the built environment little explored until now offers visible evidence of the struggle By examining the ways in which the people of Munich reconstructed the ruins of their historic buildings created new works of architecture dealt with surviving Nazi buildings and erected new monuments to commemorate the horrors of the recent past Rosenfeld identifies a spectrum of competing memories of the Nazi experience Munich's postwar development was the subject of constant controversy pitting representatives of contending aesthetic and mnemonic positions against one another in the heated battle to shape the city's urban form Examining the debates between traditionalists modernists postmodernists and critical preservationists Rosenfeld shows that the memory of Nazism in Munich has never been repressed but has rather been defined by constant dissension and evolution On balance however he concludes that Munich came to embody in its urban form a conservative view of the past that was inclined to diminish local responsibility for the Third Reich Munich notorious in recent history as the capital of the Nazi Pieter Saenredam, The Utrecht Work Liesbeth M. Helmus, 2002-01-01 Pieter Saenredam 1597-1665 was one of the magical painters of 17th century Holland, a time known as the Golden Age of Dutch Art. He spent his career immortalizing the churches of Holland in drawings and paintings. Working through a series of perspective drawings to the finished painting, he made innumerable fine adjustments to architectural details to create what may be justly called spaces of wondrous perfection of proportion and luminosity. Pieter Saenredam's The Utrecht Work is published to coincide with an exhibition of Saenredam's drawings and paintings originally held at the Centraal Museum Utrecht and on view from April 16 through July 7, 2002, at the Getty Museum. This elegant volume brings together more than sixty drawings and paintings depicting the beautiful and historically venerable churches of the Dutch city of Utrecht.

The Alte Pinakothek, Munich Reinhold Baumstark, 2002-05-29 Munich's Alte Pinakothek houses a collection of paintings from the 14th to the 18th century. Founded in the 16th century by Duke Wilhelm IV of Bavaria, the collection is now housed in a neoclassical building built under the auspices of King Ludwig I. Maximilian I acquired eleven of Dürer's works, so the gallery boasts such paintings as the Four Apostles and the Paumgarten Altar. To Elector Max Emanuel we owe the beginning of the Rubens collection, which is now the largest in the world. The Italian collection includes Raphael, Botticelli, and Titian; French painting is represented by Chardin, Fragonard, and many others, while the Spanish section is crowned by El Greco's The Disrobing of Christ. Each section is prefaced by an introductory text which sets the paintings in their historical context, and detailed captions also accompany each painting.

Città e guerra : difese, distruzioni, permanenze delle memorie e dell'immagine urbana. Tomo II : tracce e patrimoni Maria Ines Pascariello, Alessandra Veropalumbo, Raffaele Amore, 2023-12-31 Italiano In un momento così significativo per la storia europea e mondiale, questo volume vuole essere la raccolta di riflessioni scientifiche condotte sui rapporti tra le scelte politiche, le azioni militari e la fisionomia delle città e del paesaggio urbano sull'evoluzione delle strutture e delle tecniche di difesa, sulla rappresentazione della guerra e dei suoi effetti sull'immagine urbana, sul recupero delle tracce della memoria cittadina. Da una parte, il campo delle Digital Humanities apre nuove prospettive per studiare l'immagine della città prima, durante e dopo la guerra; dall'altro, le tecnologie digitali impegnano studiosi e ricercatori di varie discipline. In particolare, nell'ambito del disegno, viene esplorato il ruolo della rappresentazione nella formulazione dei progetti urbani di difesa e nella documentazione degli eventi bellici e delle tracce lasciate dai conflitti; mentre nell'ambito del restauro, vengono approfondite le sfide teoriche e pratiche imposte dai danni arrecati dai conflitti ai centri storici, passando in rassegna casi studio, soluzioni e dibattiti relativi alla conservazione del patrimonio urbano coinvolto in azioni di guerra, con un'attenzione particolare all'identità e alla memoria collettiva.

English At such a significant moment in European and world history, this volume aims to be a collection of scientific reflections about the relationships between political choices military actions and the physiognomy of cities and the urban landscape about the evolution of defence structures and techniques about the representation of war and its effects on the urban image and about the recovery of the traces of city memory On the one hand the field of Digital Humanities opens up new perspectives to study the image of the city before during and after the war on the other hand digital technologies engage academics and researchers from various disciplines In particular in the area of drawing the role of representation in the formulation of urban defence projects and in the documentation of wartime events and the traces left behind by conflicts is explored while in the area of conservation the theoretical and practical challenges imposed by the damage caused by conflicts to historic centres are explored reviewing case studies solutions and debates relating to the conservation of urban heritage involved in wartime actions with a focus on identity and collective memory
