Schmidly, 2019-01-09 For the first time this volume presents Vernon Bailey's correspondences and field notes spanning the majority of his life and career collected and annotated by David J. Schmidly Born in 1864 and raised on a Minnesota farm Vernon Bailey became the first person to conduct extensive biological surveys of Texas New Mexico North Dakota and Oregon He was one of the founding members of the American Society of Mammalogists and pioneered the humane treatment of animals during fieldwork developing and patenting traps designed to limit injuries or unnecessary stress From an early age Bailey developed an affinity for animals observing their behaviors and eventually collecting specimens for closer study He developed his own traps for catching mammals birds and reptiles and taught himself taxidermy from a book When he was twenty one Bailey began sending samples of the animals he preserved to C. H. Merriam the chief of the newly created Division of Economic Ornithology and Mammalogy of the USDA later renamed the Bureau of Biological Survey and now the US Fish and Wildlife Service Merriam was so impressed with Bailey's work that he hired him appointed him special field agent and promptly sent him to the inner frontiers of the western and southwestern United States despite the fact that Bailey had no formal training in biology During his long career Bailey kept detailed field notes chronicling his travels and wildlife observations These writings provide fascinating insight into not only people's relationships with and efforts to understand wildlife but also the ways the country was rapidly growing and changing at the beginning of the twentieth century The World Book, 1920 The Farmer's Weekly, 1930 Gone Again James Grippando, 2016-03-01 Winner of the 2017 Harper Lee Prize for Legal Fiction From the New York Times bestselling author of the acclaimed Cash Landing Cane Abe and Black Horizon James Grippando an electrifying and fast paced tale of suspense about Miami criminal defense lawyer Jack Swyteck and his first death row client since The Pardon in a case as twisty as it is shocking Sashi Burgette vanished three years ago on her way to school The night after the teenager's disappearance ex con Dylan Kyle was stopped for drunk driving An article of Sashi's clothing was found in his truck and a police videotape of his drunken explanation under interrogation sealed his fate at trial Now just days from Kyle's execution Sashi's mother visits Jack Swyteck doing pro bono work at the Freedom Institute and delivers shocking news Sashi called me The police dismiss the call as a cruel hoax The State Attorney refuses to consider the new evidence insisting the case is closed The governor has already signed the death warrant An innocent man may be executed and time is running out unless his lawyers can locate
