Nick Enright Anne Pender, Susan Lever, 2008 Nick Enright 1950-2003 was one of Australia's most significant and successful playwrights. As a writer, director, actor, and teacher, he influenced theatre in Australia for thirty years. Enright wrote more than fifty plays for the stage, film, television, and radio, translated and adapted more, and taught acting to students in varied settings both in Australia and the United States. His writing repertoire included comedy, social realism, farce, fantasy, and the musical. In addition to his prodigious contribution to all of these genres, he was a passionate advocate for the actor and the theatre in contemporary society. In this volume, Anne Pender and Susan Lever present a set of essays and recollections about Nick Enright's work for students, teachers, and scholars. The book offers a comprehensive study of Enright's writing for theatre, film, and television. Scholars, acting teachers, and theatre directors have contributed to this work, each illuminating an aspect of Enright's remarkable career. The discussions cover interpretations of Enright's scripts and productions, detailed analysis of his directing style, substantial background, and analysis of his writing for musicals, as well as accounts of his specific approach to acting and to adaptation across genres. The essays and recollections included in this book will inspire theatre practitioners as well as scholars. Most importantly, this book will inform and enlighten students and teachers both at high school and university about an exceptional career in the theatre.

Martin Sherman Tish Dace, 2011-12-22 Playwright and screenwriter Martin Sherman dramatizes outsiders: gay, female, foreign, disabled, different in religion, class, or color, skipping over quicksand as they strive to survive. This book analyzes and evaluates Sherman's work while correcting previously published errors and establishing the flavor of the critical debate. Devoting more attention to such internationally acclaimed works as Bent and Mrs. Henderson Presents, it also considers less well-known and even unpublished and unproduced scripts, as well as his working relationships with the luminaries of stage and screen who have appeared in, directed, and produced his plays and screenplays.
