

An illustration of Mr. Pickwick, a portly man with glasses, wearing a blue jacket and a black hat, sitting in a wooden cart. He is holding a small object in his hands. The cart is on a path next to a large tree on the left. In the background, there is a green field and a cloudy sky. A large metal pot or bucket is on the ground to the right of the cart.

Additionally, many universities and educational institutions have their own digital libraries that provide free access to PDF books and manuals. These libraries often offer academic texts, research papers, and technical manuals, making them invaluable resources for students and researchers. Some notable examples include MIT OpenCourseWare, which offers free access to course materials from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and the Digital Public Library of America, which provides a vast collection of digitized books and historical documents.
