Joseph Conrad, 2021-11-15 Joseph Conrad The Short Fiction offers a wide range of perspectives on Conrad's short stories. Nine essays by established and emerging scholars deal with early and classic stories as well as the relatively neglected works of Conrad's later career. The essays explore in depth the historical and publishing contexts of individual stories and provide insights into Conrad's practice as a writer of short fiction. These new readings based on contemporary theoretical and interpretive perspectives will appeal not only to specialists of literary Modernism but also to the advanced student and the general reader.

The Reception of Joseph Conrad in Europe Robert Hampson, Véronique Pauly, 2022-05-05 Born and brought up in Poland bilingually in French and Polish but living for most of his professional life in England and writing in English Joseph Conrad was from the start as much a European writer as he was a British one and his work from his earliest fictions through Heart of Darkness, Nostromo and The Secret Agent to his later novels has repeatedly been the focal point of discussions about key issues of the modern age. With chapters written by leading international scholars this book provides a wide ranging survey of the reception, translation and publication history of Conrad's works across Europe. Covering reviews and critical discussion and with some attention to adaptations in other media these chapters situate Conrad's works in their social and political context. The book also includes bibliographies of key translations in each of the European countries covered and a timeline of Conrad's reception throughout the continent.

Outlandish Nico Israel, 2000 Outlandish addresses geographical displacement as a lived experience in the twentieth century as a predicament of writing and as a problem for theory. It focuses on the work of three transnational writers from diverse backgrounds working in different genres: Joseph Conrad the Ukrainian born Polish novelist and storywriter living in Britain at the turn of the century; Theodor W. Adorno the German Jewish philosopher and sociologist transplanted to Los Angeles during the Second World War; and Salman Rushdie the Indian born British novelist and journalist recently released from the peculiar conditions of his notorious houseless arrest. The author argues that Conrad, Adorno and Rushdie emblemize significant shifts over the course of the century from a modernist expression of almost universal deracination to a post-Auschwitz disarticulation of home and subjectivity to an emergent conceptualization of displacement in terms of migrancy, hybridity and flow. He theorizes a mode of reading between exile and diaspora, two fundamentally different descriptions of displacement and allows the outlandish writing of these three figures to complicate this seemingly continuous trajectory Drawing on texts from literary theory philosophy psychoanalysis anthropology and geography the author explores what he calls the rhetoric of displacement the struggle to assert identity out of place He reads this writing predicament against the backdrop of the century s salient economic and technological changes political upheavals and mass migrations In doing so he draws attention to those aspects of exile and diaspora that have remained insufficiently considered their relation to nationalism and colonialism to authority and institutionality and above all to broader questions of subjectivity race location and language as these concepts themselves subtly change over the course of the century Abandoned in Wysteria Loren McLeod,2003-10 It is 1990 and Wysteria Florida America s oldest and least credible spiritualist community is celebrating its 100th birthday Coordinating an anniversary festival is local resident and US Arts Erich Weimar ex con divorced father and town hunk his nephew Seth a troubled 30 year old in the body of an even more troubled adolescent Justin Cook whose parents bought the Wysteria Hotel so he could have some other place to lie around Marilyn Smart the community s most talented and most modest psychic and Lenore LaShomb its least talented and least modest Together Sheila and her committee organize an event that makes Wysteria a household name for very different reasons than they expect and makes the upper class residents of neighboring Talbot consider nuking it from orbit The Myriad Faces of Heroes and Heroines Julian Patrick Ward,Kelly Kar Yue Chan,Chi Sum Garfield Lau,2025-03-31 This collection scrutinizes the representation dynamics transformation and or adaptation of various heroes and heroines in different folkloric traditions and narratives in the context of Asia Exploring notions in the topics of mythologies folktales literature theatre performance and any other art forms the volume collates discussions on the pragmatic and aesthetic representation of men and women within the mythic world and within contemporary settings In doing so it produces a contemporary theorization of Asian heroes and heroines beyond their mythic structure and folkloric limits In considering the representation of heroes and heroines in the Asian folkloric tradition and in comparative contexts the book establishes connections between characters from myths and folktales and those found in contemporary narratives considers the adaptation and transformation of heroes and heroines as revealed in a variety of literary works and also assesses the gendering of social roles in modern literature and other art forms It is of interest to scholars and advanced students in comparative literature Asian cultural studies and theatre and performance Leicestershire Medieval Village Notes ... George Francis Farnham,1931 Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly Frank Leslie,1879 Joseph Conrad Richard Curle,1914 The Sketch ,1929 Falk ; Any Foster ; To-morrow Joseph Conrad,1908 The Chinese Recorder ,1921 Sessional Papers ,1908 Report of the Dominion fishery commission on the fisheries of the province of Ontario 1893 issued as vol 26 no 7 supplement Chinese Recorder and Missionary Journal ,1921 Shareholders in the Chartered Banks of the Dominion of Canada Canada.
