Persuasive Technique	Definition	Intended Effect of Technique	Example
Alliteration	The repetition of the same sound to start a word.	It grabs the reader's attention and adds emphasis to a point, especially when used with repetition.	The dehumanisation, degradation and demeaning.
Emotional appeals	Emotional appeals come in several forms and they are intended to play on people's emotions such as their fears, insecurities, hopes and things that are valued	Can manipulate readers to take notice by triggering an emotional response.	These children were mistreated and badly neglected.
Appeal to sense of justice	An appeal to the deep belief that we all have a right to be treated fairly.	People often react quickly if they feel that they or others are victims of unjust circumstances. Often it is an appeal to a 'fair go' which is a traditional Australian value.	Thieves get off scott free while family struggles to replace damaged car.
Appeal to family values	This appeal is based on the idea that the family should be protected and that it is sacred. It is based on the ideal of a 'traditional' family.	This appeal is to people's desire for security and protection of the family unit. A threat to family is often equated to a threat to	Bonding with parents in the home is superior to care provided by strangers, however well trained they may
