Harley, G. Wickham, 2014-07-22 Battered and bruised by injuries often self inflicted sustained in the first half of the twentieth century since 1950 sociology in Australia has fought its way back into the academic mainstream This has not been easy its fortunes seem forever mixed good in some places and dismal in others But it has proved itself resilient it is a survivor Australian Ways Lenore Manderson, 2020-07-28 This collection the first of its kind in Australia illustrates the richness of data and analysis born of the anthropological study of contemporary white Australian society The studies presented here deal with diverse settings and events ranging from a community's responses to a bushfire in rural NSW to the messages encoded in a male strip show in Adelaide Work and leisure family life and institutional relationships natural disaster and culturally manipulated violence the particular experiences of the homeless the elderly immigrants all form a part of this collection Specifically and recurrently the power of gender and class within Australian life is underlined This book was inspired by the need to demonstrate the especial skills and insights of anthropology when brought to bear on familiar everyday data It will be of interest to anyone curious about the colour and diversity of Australian life Public Sociology John Germov, 2010 Green Harvest Rebecca Jones, 2010-09-03 Green Harvest explores the ideas and practices that have shaped organic farming and gardening in Australia from the interwar years to the present day It reveals that Australian organic farming and gardening societies were amongst the first in the world being active as early as the 1940s In what way does human health depend upon the natural environment Green Harvest traces this idea through four themes of Australian organic farming and gardening soil chemical free ecological well being and back to the land each illustrated with a case study profiling an Australian organic farmer or gardener Personalities in Australian organic gardening such as Jackie French and Peter Bennett talk about organic growing The book also features extracts from early organic magazines and interviews with current organic growers including banana and macadamia farmers managers of outback sheep stations dairy farmers and self sufficiency gardeners All of these tell the story of Australian organic farming and gardening past present and future Researching Transitions in Lifelong Learning John Field, Jim Gallacher, Robert Ingram, 2009-06-03 Researching Transitions in Lifelong

Learning presents new research from Britain Australia and North America The authors include leading scholars with established international reputations such as Kathryn Ecclestone Norton Grubb David Boud and Gert Biesta as well as emerging researchers with fresh and sometimes challenging perspectives

Empowerment and Control in the Australian Welfare State Philip Mendes, 2018-10-19 This book explores the tensions between the competing social rights and social control functions of the modern Australian welfare state By critically examining the history and rhetoric of the Australian welfare state from 1972 to the present day and using the author's long standing research on the Australian Council of Social Service and other welfare advocacy groups it analyses the transformation from rights based to conditional welfare The Labor Party Government from 1972-75 is identified as the only clear cut example of Australia positively using welfare payments and services as an instrument to promote greater social equity inclusion and participation Since the mid 1970s the Australian welfare state has gradually retreated from the social rights agenda conceived by the Whitlam Government Australia has followed other Anglo Saxon countries in adopting increasingly conditional and paternalistic measures that undermine the protection of social citizenship outside the labour market In contrast this text makes the case for an alternative participatory and decentralized welfare state model that would prioritize social care by empowering and supporting welfare service users at a local community level This book will be of interest to academics students and policy makers working within social policy social work and political sociology

Social Inequality in Australian Society John Stuart Western, 1983 Chapter 4 demonstrates that Aborigines have limited access to resources facilities and services in Australian society considers factors such as employment income education health access to health and welfare services housing experiences with legal system land rights participation in politics and public affairs

Aborigines in Australian Society, 1975 Australian/New Zealand Literature in the Pennsylvania State University Libraries Nan Bowman

Albinski, 1989 Nobody's Home Lyn Richards, 1990 The dream of suburban home ownership continues to appeal to many men and women Yet the realities of this dream often translate into a house where nobody's home because everyone must work to pay off the high costs of ownership Nobody's Home studies the dream and its social results Based on five years observing one Australian suburb it probes the myth of equality and home ownership and explores the acceptance of migrants to the family community the changing needs of families and ideas of privacy and neighborliness Arguing that the experience of community is divided by class stage of family and gender the study examines the differences between women's and men's desire for neighbors local friendships and groups
