Scott Murray, Raffaele Caputo

Austrian Films 1987:

Austrian Films, 1987, 1988      Austrian Cinema Robert von Dassanowsky, 2015-08-01 Austria the multicultural crossroad of the European continent has been the genesis of many artistic concepts Just as late 19th and early 20th century Austria gave influential modernism to the world in the fields of medicine urban planning architecture design literature music and theater so its film industry created a significant national cinema that seeded talents and concepts internationally Nevertheless the value of Austrian cinema to international film has been long obscured Austria s important bond with American film is also underappreciated because of the lack of accessible English language scholarship on the early careers of Austro Hollywood artists and on influential developments in Austrian film history This first comprehensive English survey of Austrian film introduces more than a century of cinema following the development of the industry chronologically through the nation s various transformations since 1895 Important industry movements genres and films are highlighted with sociopolitical cultural and aesthetic details An analysis of the economic trends that have influenced Austrian film is also provided The survey considers the directors actors producers writers cinematographers editors composers and other film artists who have been essential to the development and influence of Austrian cinema The closing chapter anticipates new faces of the Austrian film industry in the 21st century      Australian Film Festivals Kirsten Stevens, 2016-11-10 This is the first book to offer an in depth examination of the history operation and growth of film festivals as a cultural phenomenon within Australia Tracing the birth of film festivals in Australia in the 1950s through to their present abundance it asks why film festivals have prospered as audience driven spectacles throughout Australia while never developing the same industry and market foci of their international fellows Drawing on over sixty years of archival records festival commentary interviews with festival insiders and ephemera this book opens up a largely uncharted history of film culture activity in Australia      Austrian Information, 1988      Media Ethics, an Aboriginal Film and the Australian Film Commission Thomas Donovan, Brody T. Lorraine, 2002 This is a very strong and persuasive even compelling narrative Donovan s argument is clearly presented well documented and convincing to the reader Moreover the writer is able to demonstrate that this is a very important and significant issue far greater than the question of a single film being scuttled The relative merit of the film is not the central issue of the case bit rather the question of whether the merit was fairly and openly determined by Australian Film Commission personnel and procedures Emeritus Professor Donald Shea College of Letters and Science Department of Political Science University of Wisconsin Milwaukee December 1998      Australian Film Theory and Criticism Deane Williams, Constantine Verevis, Noel King, 2013-07-15 The first part of a planned three volume work devoted to mapping the transnational history of Australian film studies Australian Film Theory and Criticism Volume 1 provides an overview of the period between 1975 and 1990 during which the discipline first became established in the academy Tracing critical positions personnel and institutions across this formative period Noel King Constantine Verevis and Deane Williams examine a multitude of books and journal articles published in Australia and distributed internationally through such processes as publication in overseas journals translation and reprinting At the same time they offer important insights about the origins of Australian film theory and its relationship to such related disciplines as English and cultural studies Ultimately Australian Film Theory and Criticism Volume 1 delineates the historical implications and reveals the future possibilities of establishing new directions of inquiry for film studies in Australia and internationally

New Australian Cinema Brian McFarlane, Geoff Mayer, 1992-06-26 The institutions and products of the Australian film industry have been extensively surveyed yet few analyses consider the sources of the film revival that took place in the 1970s and 1980s This book represents a body of thinking about Australian cinema that asks where the origins of films lie The book begins by tracing the indebtedness of Australian cinema to the classical narrative style of Hollywood film making with its firm grasp of melodrama It continues by comparing the problems faced by the high British cinema of the 1940s and 1950s with those faced by Australia in the 1970s and 1980s in the attempts by both countries to establish national film industries New Australian Cinema will increase the scope of the discussion about the revival of Australian cinema and help us to make cultural sense of the films themselves
