Ever-Moving Repose Sotiris Mitralaxis,2018-01-01 Sotiris Mitralaxis offers a contemporary look at Maximus the Confessor s 580 662 CE understanding of temporality logoi and deification through the perspective of contemporary philosopher and theologian Christos Yannaras as well as John Zizioulas and Nicholas Loudovikos Mitralaxis argues that Maximus possesses both a unique theological ontology and a unique threefold theory of temporality time the Aeon and the radical transformation of temporality and motion in an ever moving repose With these three distinct modes of temporality a Maximian theory of time can be reconstructed which can be approached via his teaching on the logoi and deification In this theory time is not merely measuring ontological motion but is more particularly measuring a relationship the consummation of which effects the transformation of time into a dimensionless present devoid of temporal spatial and generally ontological distance thereby manifesting a perfect communion in otherness In examining Maximian temporality the book is not focussing on only one aspect of Maximus comprehensive Weltanschauung but looks at the Maximian vision as a whole through the lens of temporality and motion
