Jesus, the Divine Bridegroom, in Mark 2:18-22 Michael Tait,2010 Studio di Michael Tait che analizza l immagine dello sposo riferita a Gesu Riferita a YHWH nell Antico Testamento nel Nuovo l immagine non ha un valore messianico ma si applica alla cristologia piu alta This book examines the pericope Mark 2 18 22 with special reference to the Christological implications in the final form of Mark s text of Jesus reference to himself as Bridegroom After introductory material the context of the pericope is examined from a literary and theological standpoint concluding that it occupies a position of both structural significance and theological importance The background to the nuptial imagery used by Jesus Mark is looked at in the Old Testament and other Jewish literature where the figure is seen to be used exclusively of Yahweh never of the Messiah usually with a hint of disruption A survey of the New Testament apart from Mark reveals that the Bridegroom image has been transferred to Jesus not with a suggestion that it is part of his Messianic identity but rather in contexts of the highest Christology Against all this background a detailed exegesis of the pericope concludes that Mark too presents his readers with a divine figure though one who is destined to be taken away
