Amnesiac Selves:

Amnesiac Selves Nicholas Dames, 2001 In its nuanced examination of a wide variety of Victorian theories of mind including physiognomy physiology associationism and cognitive philosophies Amnesiac Selves reveals a portrait of the interaction between psychology and the novel in the years 1810-1870 Amnesiac Selves Nicholas John Dames, 1998

My Victorian Novel Annette R. Federico, 2020-05-08 The previously unpublished essays collected here are by literary scholars who have dedicated their lives to reading and studying nineteenth century British fiction and the Victorian world Each writes about a novel that has acquired personal relevance to them a work that has become entwined with their own story or that remains elusive or compelling for reasons hard to explain These are essays in the original sense of the word attempts individual and experiential approaches to literary works that have subjective meanings beyond social facts By reflecting on their own histories with novels taught studied researched and re-experienced in different contexts over many years the contributors reveal how an aesthetic object comes to inhabit our critical pedagogical and personal lives By inviting scholars to share their experiences with a favorite novel without the pressure of an analytical agenda the sociable essays in My Victorian Novel seek to restore some vitality to the act of literary criticism and encourage other scholars to talk about the importance of reading in their lives and the stories that have enchanted and transformed them The novels in this collection include Jane Eyre by Charlotte Brontë The Duke's Children by Anthony Trollope The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes by Arthur Conan Doyle The Newcomes by William Makepeace Thackeray Middlemarch by George Eliot Daniel Deronda by George Eliot The Return of the Native by Thomas Hardy Vanity Fair by William Makepeace Thackeray North and South by Elizabeth Gaskell Bleak House by Charles Dickens David Copperfield by Charles Dickens New Grub Street by George Gissing The Pickwick Papers by Charles Dickens Dracula by Bram Stoker Wuthering Heights by Emily Brontë The Cambridge

Companion to English Literature, 1830-1914 Joanne Shattock, 2010-01-28 The nineteenth century witnessed unprecedented expansion in the reading public and an explosive growth in the number of books and newspapers produced to meet its demands These specially commissioned essays examine not only the full range and variety of texts that entertained and informed the Victorians but also the boundaries of Victorian literature the links and overlap with Romanticism in the 1830s and the roots of modernism in the years leading up to the First World War The Companion demonstrates how science medicine and theology influenced creative writing and emphasizes the importance of the visual in painting book illustration and in technological innovations from the kaleidoscope to the cinema Essays also chart the complex and fruitful interchanges with writers in America Europe and the Empire highlighting the geographical expansion of literature in English This Companion brings together the most important aspects of this prolific and popular period of English literature Material Ambitions Rebecca Richardson, 2021-11-30 Intertwining the methodologies of disability studies and ecocriticism Material Ambitions persuasively unmasks the longstanding myth that ambitious individualism can overcome disadvantageous systematic and structural conditions

Imagining Otherwise Debra Gettelman, 2024-08-13 How Victorian authors engaged the imaginations of their readers and elevated the novel to new heights As novel publication exploded in nineteenth century Britain writers such as Jane Austen Charles Dickens and George Eliot learned from experience sometimes grudgingly that readers tend to make their own imaginative contributions to fictional worlds Imagining Otherwise shows how Victorian writers acknowledged grappled with and ultimately enlisted the prerogative of readers to conjure alternatives and add depth to the words on the page Debra Gettelman provides incisive new readings of novels such as Sense and Sensibility Little Dorrit and Middlemarch exploring how novelists known for prescriptive and didactic narrative voices were at the same time exploring the aesthetic potential for the reader's independent imagination to lend nuance and authenticity to fiction Modernist authors of the twentieth century have long been considered pioneers in cultivating the reader's capacity to imagine what is not said as part of the art of fiction Gettelman uncovers the roots of this tradition of novel reading a century earlier and challenges literary criticism that dismisses this spontaneous readerly impulse as being unworthy of serious examination As readers demand novels with relatable characters and fan fiction grows in popularity the reader's imagination has become a determining element of today's literary environment Imagining Otherwise takes a deeper look at this history offering a critical perspective on how we came to view fiction as a site of imaginative appropriation

Mind over Matter Sarah Eron, 2021-04-01 How do we understand memory in the early novel Departing from traditional empiricist conceptualizations of remembering Mind over Matter uncovers a social model of memory in Enlightenment fiction that is fluid and evolving one that has the capacity to alter personal histories Memories are not merely imprints of first hand experience stored in the mind but composite stories transacted through dialogue and reading Through new readings of works by Daniel Defoe Frances Burney Laurence Sterne Jane Austen and others Sarah Eron tracks the fictional qualities of memory as a force that much like the Romantic imagination transposes time and alters forms From Crusoe's island and Toby's bowling green to Evelina's garden and Fanny's east room memory can alter reconstitute and even overcome the conditions of the physical environment Memory shapes the process and outcome of the novel's imaginative world making drafting new realities to better endure trauma and crises Bringing together philosophy of mind formalism and narrative theory Eron highlights how eighteenth century novelists explored remembering as a creative and curative force for literary characters and readers alike If memory is where we fictionalize reality fiction and especially the novel is where the truths of memory can be found

Still Life Elisha Cohn, 2016 Still Life Suspended Development in the Victorian Novel rethinks the nineteenth century aesthetics of agency through the Victorian novel's fascination with states of reverie trance and sleep These states challenge contemporary scientific and philosophical accounts of the perfectibility of the self which privileged reflective self awareness In dialogue with the field of literature and science studies and affect studies this book shows how Victorian writers used narrative form to respond to the analytical practices and knowledge production of those other disciplines

Drawing upon canonical texts by Charlotte Brontë George Eliot George Meredith and Thomas Hardy Still Life contends that depictions of non purposive perceptual experience suspend the processes of self cultivation Bildung central to Victorian aesthetics science psychology and political theory as well as most critical accounts of the novel form Departing from the values of individual cultivation and moral revelation associated with the genre these writers offer an affective framework for understanding the subtly non instrumental powers of narrative Victorian novels ostensibly working within the parameters of the Bildungsroman are suspended by moments of still life a decentered lyricism associated with states of diminished consciousness They use this style to narrate what should be unnarratable experiences not dependent on reflective consciousness which express a distinctive ambivalence toward dominant developmental frameworks of individual self culture

Reading the Early Republic Robert A. FERGUSON, Robert A. Ferguson, 2009-06-30 Reading the Early Republic focuses attention on the forgotten dynamism of thought in the founding era In every case the documents novels pamphlets sermons journals and slave narratives of the early American nation are richer and more intricate than modern readers have perceived Rebellion slavery and treason the mingled stories of the Revolution still haunt national thought Robert Ferguson shows that the legacy that made the country remains the idea of what it is still trying to become He cuts through the pervading nostalgia about national beginnings to recapture the manic depressive tones of its first expression He also has much to say about the reconfiguration of charity in American life the vital role of the classical ideal in projecting an unthinkable continental republic the first manipulations of the independent American woman and the troubled integration of civic and commercial understandings in the original claims of prosperity as national virtue Reading the Early Republic uses the living textual tradition against history to prove its case The first formative writings are more than sacred artifacts They remain the touchstones of the durable promise and the problems in republican thought Brontë Studies, 2010 Associationism and the Literary Imagination Cairns Craig, 2007 Provides an account of the philosophical and psychological theories in the British empiricist tradition that provoked some of the most radical changes in literary form between the eighteenth and the twentieth centuries Origins of English Literary Modernism, 1870-1914 Gregory Tague, 2009 The aim of this work is to focus on the non dramatic works of the early period of modernism in England with an emphasis on the origins and development of key writers and poets Other such studies date to the mid 1980s Michael Levenson Sanford Schwartz Stan Smith e.g. and tend to lean heavily toward intellectual history or poetics This work strives to include a broad mix of thought as to the issue and the purpose of modernism including cultural anthropology mythology impressionism and the use of architectural space with some attention to publishing the development of the English short story emergence of literary magazines and use of literary reviews in creating a public for new writing Also as opposed the edited collections such as Shiach or Whitworth research is not confined to a single genre nor strays from the focus of literary as opposed to other modern movements then in creation Vital currents of modernism such as literary feminism secular humanism Darwinism and place and placelessness are also discussed The writers and poets discussed include Pound Eliot Wyndham Lewis T E Hulme Hardy F M Ford Joseph Conrad Virginia Woolf Walter Pater Michael Field Henry James Oscar Wilde and E M Forster Contributors include Tyrus Miller University of California Santa Cruz Elizabeth Foley O Connor Fordham University Jason B Jones Central Connecticut State University Charles Sumner University of Southern Mississippi Carme Font Paz Universitat Aut noma de Barcelona Lori M Campbell University of Pittsburgh Elizabeth A Primamore Borough of Manhattan Community College CUNY Robert McParland Felician College Sheng yen Yu National Taipei University of Technology Gregory F Tague St Francis College Alex Moffett Northeastern University Mitchell R Lewis Elmira College Divya Saksena Middle Tennessee State University Yevgeniya Traps Graduate Center CUNY Daniel Moore University of Birmingham UK Allan Johnson University of Leeds UK Wayne Stables Trinity College Dublin Timothy Vincent Duquesne University Monika Gehlawat University of Southern Mississippi Tom Henthorne Pace University Katherine Isobel Baxter Hong Kong University This substantial volume organized around thematics of Origins of English Literary Modernism allows essays on the fin de si cle to talk interestingly to those on Edwardians and Georgians and they in turn to studies of early modernist masters The emphasis on genealogy of modernism holds the volume together but does not keep individual essays from fresh and interesting explorations little magazines in the fin de si cle Bennett s early criticism historiography in Vernon Lee Baedeker in E M Forster a rich and interesting collection toward study of the long twentieth century John Maynard Professor of English New York University and Co Editor of Victorian Literature and Culture Constructing Clinton Shawn J. Parry-Giles, Trevor Parry-Giles, 2002 Bill Clinton is the embodiment and epitome of American politics in the postmodern mediated age Clinton s able marshaling of images which allowed him to retain popularity and position when faced with compelling obstacles marks him as the preeminent figure in a fluid and fluctuating era of image politics Constructing Clinton Hyperreality Presidential Image Making in Postmodern Politics pays particular attention to the collection of disparate sometimes connected often random images that create a site of political meaning we know as Bill Clinton former president of the United States Through analyses of unique image texts including The Man from Hope The War Room Primary Colors MTV s Biorhythms and PBS The American President Constructing Clinton focuses on the image of Bill Clinton as it was defined by and trapped in the hyperreality so characteristic of contemporary presidential politics Old English Heroic Poems and the Social Life of Texts John D. Niles, 2007 Old English Heroic Poems and the Social Life of Texts develops the theme that all stories all beautiful lies if one considers them as such have a potentially myth like function as they enter and re enter the stream of human consciousness In particular the volume assesses the place of heroic poetry including Beowulf Widsith and The Battle of Maldon in the evolving society of Anglo Saxon England during the tenth century period of nation building Poetry Niles argues was a great collective medium through which the Anglo Saxons conceived of their changing social world and made mental adjustments to it Old English heroic geography is examined as an aspect of the mentality of that era So too is the idea of the oral poet or bard as a means by which the people of this time continued to conceive of themselves in defiance of reality as members of a tribe like community knit by close personal bonds The volume is rounded off by the identification of Bede's story of the poet CAedmon as the earliest known example of a modern folktale type and by a spirited defense of Seamus Heaney's recent verse translation of Beowulf     Representations ,2001     The Victorian Newsletter ,2006     Virginia Woolf and the Nineteenth-century Domestic Aesthetic Emily Blair,2002     Something to Look Forward to Paul Volkening Torek,1995     GLQ ,1993     Nineteenth-century Literature ,2001 Contains articles which focus on a broad spectrum of significant figures in fiction philosophy and criticism such as Austen Carlyle Dickens Thackeray the Brontes Tennyson Browning Arnold Emerson Hawthorne Thoreau Whitman Twain and Henry James
