State Entomologist of Indiana

A Transparent Tree:

The Transparent Tree ,1940 Every summer George and William went with their parents to the farm which was empty except when they were there This summer the boys found they had nothing to do once they had finished their few chores Their mother and father shooed them out of the house to explore but the boys couldn t find anything to see until the day they met Slim Jim standing next to their woodpile Slim as he preferred to be called was looking for a transparent tree and the entrance to the underground road the animals used And Slim was sure they wouldn t want to help him hunt because they wouldn t be interested
