Architecture in Europe Since 1968 Alexander Tzonis, Liane Lefavre, 1992 A comprehensive survey of architectural projects during a time of great ferment from the student movements and political upheaval of 1968 to the official unification of Europe in 1992 Following an extensive introductory essay by the authors four invited essays address the major issues of the period urban context and change typology technology ecology Some 75 individual projects are then presented each accompanied by a critical essay together with photographs drawings site diagrams and construction details 9x12 1/2 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Architecture in Europe Alexander Tzonis, Liane Lefavre, 1992

Creating Place in Early Modern European Architecture Elizabeth Merrill, 2025-10-01 The importance of place as a unique spatial identity has been recognized since antiquity Ancient references to the genius loci or spirit of place evoked not only the location of a distinct atmosphere or environment but also the protection of this location and implicitly its making and construction This volume examines the concept of place as it relates to architectural production and building knowledge in early modern Europe 1400 1800 The places explored in the book s ten essays take various forms from an individual dwelling to a cohesive urban development to an extensive political territory Within the scope of each study the authors draw on primary source documents and original research to demonstrate the distinctive features of a given architectural place and how these are related to a geographic location social circumstances and the contributions of individual practitioners The essays underscore the distinct techniques practices and organizational structures by which physical places were made in the early modern period An inquiry on place making and architectural production in early modern Europe 1400 1750 Interdisciplinary methodology and critical approaches Thematic study that draws together subjects from throughout early modern Europe

Legal Protection for Computer-Implemented Inventions Sabine Kruspig, Claudia Schwarz, 2016-04-24 As a result of the incorporation of computer software into countless commercial and industrial products the patentability of software has become a vital issue in intellectual property law This indispensable book provides an overview on the current status of computer implemented inventions in patent law across Europe and major jurisdictions worldwide A hugely practical field research tool with guidance based on case law it examines the major hurdles in each particular country and describes the best practice to be adopted Clearly showing how enforceable software patent applications can be competitively drafted and how a patent portfolio for computer implemented inventions can be established in several countries without spending money unnecessarily on problematic examination proceedings this book covers such issues and topics as the following claim categories for patent applications sufficient level of abstraction breadth of the claimed invention fundamental terms of computing and terminological traps probability for patents dependent on software application areas and patents in core areas of computing With separate chapters for the key countries Germany the United Kingdom France the United States China Korea Japan India and the European Patent Office the legal situation for computer implemented inventions in each country or region this book includes guidance on prosecution under national law analyses of relevant court decisions practice checklists and an outlook on future developments The authors describe claim formulation based on actual cases and on principles of computer science in order to show what might be or might not be patentable in each jurisdiction With this incomparable resource patent attorneys and patent professionals in companies will get a basis for making decisions about the most appropriate jurisdictions in which to file patent applications This book will also be of great value to computer professionals who are affected by the protection of software or who are actively involved in the protection of software by patent law

Theatres of Architectural Imagination Lisa Landrum, Sam Ridgway, 2023-05-17 This volume explores connections between architecture and theatre and encourages imagination in the design of buildings and social spaces Imagination is arguably the architect's most crucial capacity underpinning memory invention and compassion No simple power of the mind architectural imagination is deeply embodied social and situational Its performative potential and holistic scope may be best understood through the model of theatre Theatres of Architectural Imagination examines the fertile relationship between theatre and architecture with essays interviews and entr'actes arranged in three sections Bodies Settings and Inter Actions Contributions explore a global spectrum of examples and contexts from ancient Rome and Renaissance Italy to modern Europe North America India Iran and Japan Topics include the central role of the human body in design the city as a place of political drama protest and phenomenal play and world making through language gesture and myth Chapters also consider sacred and magical functions of theatre in Balinese and Persian settings eccentric experiments at the Bauhaus and 1970 Osaka World Expo and ecological action and collective healing amid contemporary climate chaos Inspired by architect and educator Marco Frascari the book performs as a Janus like memory theatre recalling and projecting the architect's perennial task of reimagining a more meaningful world This collection will delight and provoke thinkers and makers in theatrical arts and built environment disciplines especially architecture landscape and urban design

The Afterlife of the Shoah in Central and Eastern European Cultures Anna Artwinska, Anja Tippner, 2021-11-08 The Afterlife of the Shoah in Central and Eastern European Cultures is a collection of essays by literary scholars from Germany the US and Central Eastern Europe offering insight into the specific ways of representing the Shoah and its aftereffects as well as its entanglement with other catastrophic events in the region Introducing the conceptual frame of postcatastrophe the collected essays explore the discursive and artistic space the Shoah occupies in the countries between Moscow and Berlin Postcatastrophe is informed by the knowledge of other concepts of post and shares their insight into forms of transmission and latency in contrast to them explores the after effects of extreme events on a collective aesthetic and political rather than a personal level The articles use the concept of postcatastrophe as a key to understanding the entangled and conflicted cultures of remembrance in postsocialist literatures and the arts dealing with events phenomena and developments that refuse to remain in the past and still continue to shape perceptions of today's societies in Eastern Europe As a contribution to memory studies as well as to literary criticism with a special focus on Shoah remembrance after socialism this book is of great interest to students and scholars of European history and those interested in historical memory more broadly

Forgeries of Memory and Meaning Cedric J. Robinson, 2012-09-01 Cedric J Robinson offers a new understanding of race in America through his analysis of theater and film of the early twentieth century He argues that economic political and cultural forces present in the eras of silent film and the early talkies firmly entrenched limited representations of African Americans Robinson grounds his study in contexts that illuminate the parallel growth of racial beliefs and capitalism beginning with Shakespearean England and the development of international trade He demonstrates how the needs of American commerce determined the construction of successive racial regimes that were publicized in the theater and in motion pictures particularly through plantation and jungle films In addition to providing new depth and complexity to the history of black representation Robinson examines black resistance to these practices Whereas D W Griffith appropriated black minstrelsy and romanticized a national myth of origins Robinson argues that Oscar Micheaux transcended uplift films to create explicitly political critiques of the American national myth Robinson's analysis marks a new way of approaching the intellectual political and media racism present in the beginnings of American narrative cinema

The Greatest Inventions Ever Jaideep Gupte, 2025-07-30 Everyday billions of people wake up on planet Earth pick up their toothbrush use a kettle run through their smartphone sit in a train bus car and head for work college school They may use a desktop laptop tablet and return home at the end of the day Some may watch some television others just grab dinner and crash out only to repeat this cycle over and over day after day The routine gets so mechanical that only a tiny fraction ever wonder how the things they used during the day were conceived in the first place Very few of these billions realize that all the little conveniences they took for granted during the day are a result of eons of deep cognitive processes and scores of trial and error methods The masterminds behind these stunningly creative works have long remained as some far flung and unsung heroes but it is they who have made our lives as smooth as butter and as soft as velvet This book dives into the origin of all these little conveniences called Inventions the stories and minds behind them Starting with the Stone Age and spanning numerous civilizations and countries the book looks into all the defining things that have been invented so far how they work and what could be invented in the future It also takes a peek into how Inventions have shaped the relationship between countries and civilizations how they rose and fell across various civilizations and why some countries have been consistently better at inventing than other countries The book aims to ignite the spark of curiosity among the readers at the same time helping the reader appreciate the ingenuity of these unsung heroes who lie forgotten on some dusty and nondescript shelves across various libraries Without them we would still be cavemen today living out our lives like hunter gatherers

A History of French Architecture Sir Reginald Theodore Blomfield, 1911

Memory and Utopia Luisa Passerini, 2017-07-05 Memory and Utopia looks at the connection between memory and forgetfulness in Europe during the twentieth century Drawing on oral history and feminist theory and practice the book highlights how women struggled to be recognized as full subjects The themes of utopia and desire in the 1968 movements of students women and workers are explored Memory and Utopia examines the sense of belonging to Europe that has emerged in the last twenty years The book analyses European identity as expressed through identities based on gender age and culture to explore an inclusive and non hierarchical subjectivity
