Architectures Capitales:

Architectures Capitales À Paris, 1994 Power and Architecture Michael Minkenberg, 2014-06-01 Capital cities have been the seat of political power and central stage for their state's political conflicts and rituals throughout the ages. In the modern era they provide symbols for and confer meaning to the state, thereby contributing to the invention of the nation. Capitals capture the imagination of natives, visitors, and outsiders alike, yet also express the outcomes of power struggles within the political systems in which they operate. This volume addresses the reciprocal relationships between identity, regime formation, urban planning, and public architecture in the Western world. It examines the role of urban design and architecture in expressing or hiding ideological beliefs and political agendas. Case studies include old capitals such as Rome, Vienna, Berlin, and Warsaw; new ones such as Washington DC, Ottawa, Canberra, Ankara, Bonn, and Brasilia; and the European capital Brussels. Each case reflects the authors' different disciplinary backgrounds in architecture, history, political science, and urban studies, demonstrating the value of an interdisciplinary approach to studying cities.

Planning Twentieth Century Capital Cities David Gordon, 2006-09-27 This book examines the plans for sixteen important capital cities around the world, each with its own fully illustrated chapter written by an expert on the urban development of that city.

Identity Papers Steven Ungar, Tom Conley, Identity Papers was first published in 1996. Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions. What does citizenship mean? What is the process of naturalization, one goes through in becoming a citizen, and what is its connection to assimilation? How do the issues of identity raised by this process manifest themselves in culture? These questions and the way they arise in contemporary France are the focus of this diverse collection. The essays in this volume range in subject from fiction and essay to architecture and film. Among the topics discussed are the 1937 Exposition Universelle, films dealing with Vichy France, François Truffaut's Histoire d'Adèle H, the war of Algerian independence, and nation building under François Mitterrand. Contributors: Anne Donadey, Elizabeth Ezra, Richard J. Golsan, Lynn A. Higgins, T. Jefferson Kline, Panivong Norindr, Shanny Peer, Rosemarie Scullion, David H. Slavin, Philip H. Solomon, Florianne Wild, Steven Ungar. Ungar is professor of cinema and comparative literature at the University of Iowa and author of Scandal and Aftereffect. Blanchot and France since 1930. Minnesota, 1995. Tom Conley is professor of French at Harvard University.

Emerging Concepts in Urban Space Design Professor Geoffrey Broadbent, Geoffrey Broadbent, 2003-09-06 This important work now available in paperback from Professor Geoffrey Broadbent provides a clear analysis of the nature of many of today's design problems, identifying their causes in history and suggesting a basis for coordinated solutions. The author discusses picturesque and formal tendencies in modern architecture, relating them to parallels between philosophic thought and design theory through the ages. Using a wealth of international examples from around the world, including America, UK, Italy, Germany, and France, and with over 250 photographs and illustrations, Emerging Concepts in Space Design offers a
