Argento Series:

Argento Series Kevin Killian, 2001 In his first collection of poetry novelist Kevin Killian views the horrors of the AIDS pandemic through a narrow prism the films of Italian horror maestro Dario Argento Argento Series is structured like a horror film populating deadpan reportage with badly drawn characters whose grisly deaths nevertheless come as an apocalyptic shock For twenty years Killian's friends have been dying like flies four flies on gray velvet to borrow one of Argento's titles And not only his friends but millions of untold strangers a catastrophe of such enormity that poetry itself gasps in its wake deaf blind and speechless Killian's poems are deceptively simple quiet and lyric until the creaky melodrama of the giallo makes its entrance screaming like a virus then the language shrieks and trembles Argento Series is a testament to human suffering a curse on the bureaucratic blindness that allows it to spread and grow a call to political action unlike any other
