Child Support Through Small Group Counseling:

Child Support Lois C. Landy, 1992 Child Support Lois Landy, 1988 Group Counseling: Concepts and Procedures Fourth Edition Robert C. Berg, Garry L. Landreth, Kevin A. Fall, 2013-08-21 The fourth edition of this well respected text first published in 1979 is a timely and thorough revision of the existing material Group Counseling has done well over the years due in large part to its comprehensive history of group work as a counseling specialty the practical nature of the authors explanations the diversity of sources the authors draw upon and the international acclaim of Dr Landreth s work on play and filial therapy This text will provide both novice and experienced counselors with a framework from which to expand their group counseling skills and knowledge

Group Counseling Robert C. Berg, Garry L. Landreth, Kevin A. Fall, 2013-01-04 First published in 1979 Group Counseling has consistently been a widely used and praised text providing both novice and experienced counselors with a framework from which to expand their group counseling skills and knowledge This fifth edition has been thoroughly revised and updated to reflect the newest work in the field the 2009 CACREP standards and the Association for Specialists in Group Work practice standards As in the previous editions the authors draw upon their extensive experience and share their own styles of leading groups as a personal and practical way to illustrate the differences in group leadership Berg Landreth and Fall present a thorough discussion of the rationale for using group counseling with an emphasis on the group s role as a preventive environment and as a setting for self discovery The authors examine the group facilitator s internal frame of reference and ways to overcome of initial anxiety about leading groups and they also explore typical problems in the development facilitation and termination of the group process and provide suggested solutions Application of group counseling is considered with children adolescents adults as well as with special populations such as abused children juvenile offenders and individuals with emotional difficulties A helpful glossary of group counseling terminology provides a quick reference source for important terms New to this edition are a chapter on diversity and social justice in group work an expanded chapter on co leadership a topic often ignored in other group counseling texts separate chapters on group work with children and group work with adolescents so that reader can focus more easily on the unique aspects of working with each population a chapter on evaluating groups at the leader group and individual member levels A collection of supplemental resources is available online to benefit both instructors and students Instructors will find PowerPoint slides and test banks to aid in conducting their courses and students can access questions for thought and reflection to supplement their review of the chapters in the text These materials can be accessed at www.routledge.com/cw/Berg

Living With Grief Kenneth J. Doka, 2014-01-14 First published in 1996 This book was produced as a companion to the Hospice Foundation of America s third annual teleconference The Foundation begun in 1982 is a nonprofit organization dedicated to providing leadership in the development of hospice and its philosophy of care for terminally ill people The Foundation conducts educational programs related to hospice sponsors research on ethical questions as well as the economics of health care at the end of life and serves as a philanthropic presence within the national hospice community Close to 90 percent of hospices in the United States reach beyond their own patients and families to become in a variety of ways a community resource on grief and bereavement That is part of the hospice mission and an important service which the Hospice Foundation of America encourages and tries to support Our annual teleconference is a major part of our effort and it like all of our projects is largely underwritten by contributions from individuals The Hospice Foundation of America is a member of the Combined Federal Campaign through Health Charities of Americas The Hospice Foundation of America is a member of the Combined Federal Campaign through Health Charities of America Handbook of Group Counseling and Psychotherapy Janice L. DeLucia-Waack, Cynthia R. Kalodner, Maria Riva, 2013-12-02 The most comprehensive and thoroughly researched text available on this topic Handbook of Group Counseling and Psychotherapy Second Edition underscores the notion that group work is improved through increased collaboration between researchers and practitioners Edited by renowned leaders in the field this thoroughly updated and revised Second Edition explores current literature and research and offers suggestions for practice in psycho educational counseling and therapy groups The Handbook is divided into five main sections current and historical perspectives best practices multicultural and diverse groups groups in special settings and an introduction to special topics Burnout in Families Charles R. Figley, 1997-12-29 Sleeplessness depression anxiety these are common symptoms of the burnout that often accompanies living with a loved one who has experienced some kind of traumatic stress It is well known that the loss of a child a life threatening injury sexual assault or combat experience can affect the victim in traumatic ways but what is often overlooked is how this trauma affects those closest to the victim the family Burnout in Families focuses on the emotional vulnerability of families exposed to the chronic or acute stress of one of its members Editor Charles R Figley brings together seven psychologists from around the United States to take a closer look at what is now known as secondary traumatic stress disorder the burnout that occurs when family members care for or just live with other family members who have undergone a traumatic life event The authors provide a comprehensive review of the available literature and offer solutions for treating and preventing family burnout and the marital and family discord that inevitably follows Burnout in Families is an ideal text for university level psychology family therapy and social work courses SAFE, Student Assistance and Family Education Program Pamela Lemerand, 1993 Safe Student Assistance and Family Education Program Strategies for Counseling with Children and Their Parents Geraldine Leitl Orton, 1997 This practice oriented text provides practical strategies for counseling children and their families The author stresses that children must be evaluated in terms of their whole environment including whatever positive and or negative parental influence exists The author focuses on ways to involve parents in the counseling process Because all children need to be approached as individuals the author equips readers with the skills they need to be flexible and adaptive A range of assessment and counseling techniques are presented including play art and bibliotherapy to give counselors diverse options Case studies and dialogues illustrate how these techniques can be applied in practice The book stresses that no one theory of practice can fit all children and adolescents Counseling and Learning Through Small-group Discussion Helen Irene Driver,1970 Sibshops Donald Joseph Meyer,Patricia F. Vadasy,1994 This practical resource describes Sibshops an award winning programme that brings together 8 to 13 year olds to express their feelings about having brothers and sisters with disabilities Counseling Children and Adolescents Ann Vernon,1999 American Book Publishing Record ,2006 Staffing Guidance Programs George E.
