Claude Simon Writing The Visible:

Claude Simon Celia Britton, 1993 Part of the Modern Literatures in Perspective series this text considers the work of Claude Simon The first part provides contemporary reactions and reviews of Simon's work and the second part consists of critical readings of his work Claude Simon Celia Britton, 2014-09-19 This is a major study of the Nobel prize winning French novelist Claude Simon Simon is a complex figure for all that he writes in a distinctively modern fictional tradition exemplified by Proust Joyce Beckett and Robbe Grillet his novels contain strong elements of visual representation alongside a very different kind of free floating anti realist writing The Facts on File Companion to the French Novel Karen L. Taylor, 2006 French novels such as Madame Bovary and The Stranger are staples of high school and college literature courses This work provides coverage of the French novel since its origins in the 16th century with an emphasis on novels most commonly studied in high school and college courses in world literature and in French culture and civilization

Encyclopedia of the Novel Paul Schellinger, 2014-04-08 The Encyclopedia of the Novel is the first reference book that focuses on the development of the novel throughout the world Entries on individual writers assess the place of that writer within the development of the novel form explaining why and in exactly what ways that writer is important Similarly an entry on an individual novel discusses the importance of that novel not only from analyzing the particular innovations that novel has introduced and the ways in which it has influenced the subsequent course of the genre A wide range of topic entries explore the history criticism theory production dissemination and reception of the novel A very important component of the Encyclopedia of the Novel is its long surveys of development of the novel in various regions of the world

Encyclopedia of Modern French Thought Christopher John Murray, 2004 This work covers not only philosophy but also all the other major disciplines including literary theory sociology linguistics political thought theology and more The 240 analytical entries examine individuals such as Bergson Durkheim Mauss Sartre Beauvoir Foucault Levi Strauss Lacan Kristeva and Derrida specific disciplines such as the arts anthropology historiography psychology and sociology key beliefs and methodologies such as Catholicism deconstruction feminism Marxism and phenomenology themes and concepts such as freedom language media and sexuality and historical political social and intellectual context From publisher's description

Claude Simon Mária Minich Brewer, 1995 Simon's works run the gamut from first person narratives to narratives without a stable perspective His novels deal with minute details of the grand stages of history world war for instance and with the historical dimensions of everyday life Maria Minich Brewer demonstrates that Simon has reformulated the standard forms of fiction to expose the logic of narrative a complex and powerful legacy populated with stereotypes too easily accepted as natural New Novel, New Wave, New Politics Lynn A. Higgins, 1998-03-01 Until now writings on the celebrated movements in literature and film that emerged in France in the mid 1950s the New Novel and New Wave have concentrated on their formal innovations not on their engagement with history or politics New Novel New Wave New Politics overturns

this traditional approach Lynn A Higgins argues that the New Novelists e g Alain Robbe Grillet Claude Simon Marguerite Duras and New Wave filmmakers e g Claude Chabrol Francois Truffaut Jean Luc Godard Alain Resnais engage in a kind of historiography They enact the conflicts the double binds of postwar history and representation Higgins claims that what art historian Serge Guilbaut has said of American Abstract Expressionism is equally true of the New Novel and New Wave that its aesthetic innovations provided a way for avant garde artists to preserve their sense of social commitment while eschewing the art of propaganda and illustration It was in a sense a political apoliticism Higgins shows how the New Novel and New Wave are related developments While their individual styles and themes remain distinctive she writes they share an ecriture that can be described as alternately or interconnectedly filmic and novelistic New Wave filmmakers borrowed novelistic devices and made frequent literary allusions while the vision of the novelists is distinctly cinematic A lively account that takes us to the crossroads where culture and politics meet New Novel New Wave New Politics dramatically revises our view of a whole generation of important influential artists

Abstract Expressionism Joan M. Marter, 2007 A collection of essays that discuss abstract expressionist art

Claude Simon and the Transgressions of Modern Art Michael Evans, 1988

Reading Between the Lines Jean H. Duffy, 1998 This is the first extended analysis of Simon s novels examining the relationship between the work of the French Nobel prize winning novelist Claude Simon and that of a number of visual artists whose work he has used as stimuli in the production of his novels

The New Novel in France Arthur E. Babcock, 1997 Babcock separates the myth from the history of a movement that began in the 1950s and persisted through the 1970s providing a fair and dispassionate account of its chief representatives While Babcock does look at these writers as participants in a movement he does not force a false unity on the group Through an examination of their exemplary novels Babcock gives a balanced view of their common concerns as well as their differences As the nouveau roman reaches its fiftieth year The New Novel in France offers the first major historical study of a literary form that continues to capture scholarly interest and to excite intense debate

French Fiction Revisited Leon Samuel Roudiez, 1991 The most interesting French fiction since World War II is also the most revolutionary exploring new narrative techniques and incorporating challenging new ideas in aesthetics politics psychoanalysis gender linguistics and philosophy This fiction looks strange and forbidding to American readers however which makes Roudiez s overview of postwar French fiction a welcome guide In a revised and updated version of his French Fiction Today Roudiez includes chapters on an important precursor Raymond Roussel and on thirteen of the most significant innovators in French fiction A concluding chapter discusses younger writers like Muriel Cerf and Patrick Grainville who are carrying on this revolutionary activity and an extensive bibliography includes all English translations of their work As the Virginia Quarterly Review said of the first edition This is a masterful analysis which should serve handily as a thoroughly reliable guide and reference tool for many years to come

Claude Simon Mary Orr, 1993

Postmodernism, Or, The Cultural Logic

of Late Capitalism Fredric Jameson,1991 In his most wide ranging and accessible work Frederic Jameson argues that postmodernism is the cultural response to the latest systemic change in world capitalism He seeks here to crystallize a definition of a term which has taken on so many meanings that it has virtually lost all historical significance He presents an extensive discussion on the cultural landscape both high and low of postmodernity evaluating the political fortunes of the new term and surveying postmodern developments in a range of different fields from market ideology to architecture from painting and instalment art to contemporary punk film from video art and high literature to deconstruction Finally Jameson reevaluates the concept of postmodernism in light of postmodern critiques of totalization and historical narratives from the notion of decadence to the dynamics of small groups from religious fundamentalism to hi tech science fiction while touching on the nature of contemporary cultural critique and the possibilities of cognitive mapping in the present multinational world system This provocative book will be fundamental to all future discussions of postmodernism Practices of the New Novel in Claude Simon's L'herbe and La Route Des Flandres Doris Y. Kadish,1979 Gale Contextual Encyclopedia of World Literature Anne Marie Hacht,Dwayne D. Hayes,2009 Covers world authors from many periods and genres building an understanding of the various contexts from the biographical to the literary to the historical in which literature can be viewed Identifies the significant literary devices and global themes that define a writer s style and place the author in a larger literary tradition as chronicled and evaluated by critics over time Twentieth-century Literary Movements Dictionary Helene Henderson,Jay P. Pederson,2000 A reference for students in late high school and early college who are examining literature from the perspective of literary movements Entries are international in scope and describe some 500 major and less well known literary movements schools genres techniques and terms of the 20th century as well as major 19th century movements which have exerted tremendous influence on 20th century literature Each entry describes writers identified with the movement representative works literary techniques and philosophical and artistic tenets and historical and cultural context Language Quarterly ,1990
