Claudio Rodriguez And The Language Of Poetic Vision:

Claudio Rodriguez & Language Jonathan Mayhew, 1990 This study reverses the widespread notion that Rodriguez a major voice in contemporary Spanish poetry is a naive writer by interpreting his poetry as a sustained meditation on the problem of poetic language Claudio Rodriguez and the Language of Poetic Vision Jonathan Mayhew, 1988 The Poetry of Francisco Brines Judith Nantell, 1994 Brines's seven poetry collections offer a sustained inquiry into three fundamental philosophical themes knowledge the present moment and non being These themes however are presented as conflictual differences The numerous poetic voices heard throughout his poetry continually wrestle with knowledge perpetually oscillating with ignorance the present moment unceasingly becoming past and human existence endlessly displaying its own finitude In this study the critical interpretation of these themes leads to the critical exploration of language the signifying process of language and the warring forces of signification The sign is thus viewed as a structure of difference and as such it endlessly displays the duplicitous nature of language engaged in a semantic struggle with itself BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Spanish Poetry of the Twentieth Century Andrew Debicki, 2014-10-17 Twentieth century Spanish poetry has received comparatively little attention from critics writing in English Andrew Debicki now presents the first English language history published in the United States to examine the sweep of modern Spanish verse More important he is the first to situate Spanish poetry in the context of European modernity to trace its trajectory from the symbolists to the postmodernists Avoiding the rigid generational schemes and catalogs of names found in traditional Hispanic literary histories Debicki offers detailed discussions of salient books and texts to construct an original and compelling view of his subject He demonstrates that contemporary Spanish verse is rooted in the modern tradition and poetics that see the text as a unique embodiment of complex experiences He then traces the evolution of that tradition in the early decades of the century and its gradual disintegration from the 1950s to the present as Spanish poetry came to reflect features of the postmodern especially the poetics of text as process rather than as product By centering his study on major periods and examining within each the work of poets of different ages Debicki develops novel perspectives The late 1960s and early 1970s for example were not merely the setting for a new aestheticist generation but an era of exceptional creativity in which both established and new writers engendered a profound intertextual and often self-referential lyricism This book will be essential reading for specialists in modern Spanish letters for advanced students and for readers interested in comparative literature The Poetics of Self-consciousness Jonathan Mayhew, 1994 Twentieth century poetry engages in a highly self-conscious meditation on the nature of poetic language Spanish poetry however has sometimes been considered an exception to this tendency This book with its focus on linguistic self-reflexivity refutes the notion that major Spanish poets such as Jorge Guillen and Vicente Aleixandre are theoretically naive creators In a series of nuanced readings Jonathan Mayhew demonstrates the extent to which modern Spanish poets are conscious of their linguistic medium Previous books on Spanish poetry published in English have been more limited in scope usually including poets of a single generation The Poetics of Self Consciousness is the first to study well known writers of the earlier part of the century along with more recent poets such as Jose Angel Valente Jaime Gil de Biedma Jose Maria Alvarez and Juan Lamillar Interpreting poetic texts written from the 1920s through the 1980s Mayhew is able to trace the evolving function of literary self consciousness in Spanish poetry while remaining attentive to the differences among writers of the same historical moment The modernist poets of the earlier part of the century are preoccupied by the problem of literary mimesis the representation of reality through language In the postwar years poets turned their attention to the social and ethical dimensions of poetic language The postmodernists of more recent decades finally are increasingly concerned with their own belatedness with respect to cultural traditions of the past Critics hailed Jonathan Mayhew s first book Claudio Rodriguez and the Language of Poetic vision as an enlightening and timely book on perhaps Spain s greatest living poet and a signal first effort from a critic with high scholarly standards and a penetrating insight into contemporary poetry With The Poetics of Self Consciousness Twentieth Century Spanish Poetry readers will discover another probing study of other modern and postmodern Spanish poets
