Virginia Slave Births Index, 1853-1865, Volume 1, A-C Alexandria Library (Alexandria, Va.), 2007-01-01 In 1853 the Commonwealth of Virginia began an annual registration of births and deaths The Birth Index of Slaves 1853 1865 was later transcribed by the Works Project Administration WPA and recorded on microfilm While the information name of slave owner infant s name mother s name birth date place of birth is of immense value to genealogists working with the microfilm can be problematic Hence the creation of this multi volume reference work Virginia Slave Births Index 1853 1865 In 2003 staff and volunteers with Local History Special Collections Alexandria Library began to transcribe the WPA microfilm enter data into spreadsheets and sort the information by slave owner s surname and given name Entries include single births multiple births and stillbirths Occasionally both parents of an enslaved infant are identified In rare instances the name of a freeborn infant appears Independent city and county names are spelled out Data not reported in the microfilm is denoted by Illegible text in the microfilm is denoted by This index includes more than 130 000 entries MacArthur in Asia Hiroshi Masuda, 2012-11-15 General Douglas MacArthur s storied career is inextricably linked to Asia His father Arthur served as Military Governor of the Philippines while Douglas was a student at West Point and the younger MacArthur would serve several tours of duty in that country over the next four decades becoming friends with several influential Filipinos including the country s future president Emanuel L Quezon In 1935 he became Quezon s military advisor a post he held after retiring from the U S Army and at the time of Japan s invasion of 1941 As Supreme Commander for the Southwest Pacific MacArthur led American forces throughout the Pacific War He officially accepted Japan s surrender in 1945 and would later oversee the Allied occupation of Japan from 1945 to 1951 He then led the UN Command in the Korean War from 1950 to 1951 until he was dismissed from his post by President Truman In MacArthur in Asia the distinguished Japanese historian Hiroshi Masuda offers a new perspective on the American icon focusing on his experiences in the Philippines Japan and Korea and highlighting the importance of the general s staff the famous Bataan Boys who served alongside MacArthur throughout the Asian arc of his career to both MacArthur s and the region s history First published to wide acclaim in Japanese in 2009 and translated into English for the first time this book uses a wide range of sources American and Japanese official records and oral histories to present a complex view of MacArthur one that illuminates his military decisions during the Pacific campaign and his administration of the Japanese Occupation MacArthur's Korean War Generals Stephen R. Taaffe, 2016-03-14 Wedged chronologically between World War II and Vietnam the Korean War which began with North Korea s invasion of South Korea in June of 1950 possessed neither the virtuous triumphalism of the former nor the tragic pathos of the latter Most Americans supported defending South Korea but there was considerable controversy during the war as to the best means to do so and the question was at least as exasperating for American army officers as it was for the general public A longtime historian of American military leadership in the crucible of war Stephen R Taaffe takes a close critical look at how the highest ranking field commanders of the Eighth Army acquitted themselves in the first decisive year in Korea Because an army is no better than its leadership his analysis opens a new perspective on the army s performance in Korea and on the conduct of the war itself In that first year the Eighth Army s leadership ran the gamut from impressive to lackluster a surprising unevenness since so many of the high ranking officers had been battle tested in World War II Taaffe attributes these leadership difficulties to the army s woefully unprepared state at the war s start army personnel policies and General Douglas MacArthur s corrosive habit of manipulating his subordinates and pitting them against each other He explores the personalities at play their pre war experiences the manner of their selection their accomplishments and failures and of course their individual relationships with each other and MacArthur By explaining who these field corps and division commanders were Taaffe exposes the army s institutional and organizational problems that contributed to its up and down fortunes in Korea in 1950 1951 Providing a better understanding of MacArthur s controversial generalship Taaffe s book offers new and invaluable insight into the army s life and death struggle in America s least understood conflict
