Sport in Australian National Identity Tony Ward,2013-09-13 For many Australians there are two great passions sport and taking the piss This book is about national identity and especially about Australia s image as a sporting country Whether reverent or not any successful national image has to reflect something about the reality of the country But it is also influenced by the reasons that people have for encouraging particular images and by the conflicts between differing views of national identity and of sport Buffeted by these elements both the extent of Australian sports madness and the level of stirring have varied considerably over time While many refer to long lasting factors such as the amount of sunshine this book argues that the ebb and flow of sporting images are strongly linked to current views of national identity Starting from Archer s win in the first Melbourne Cup in 1861 it traces the importance of trade unions in the formation of Australian Rules the success of a small rural town in holding one of the world s foremost running races and the win from behind of a fat arsed wombat knocking off the official mascots of Sydney 2000 This book was based on a special issue of Soccer and Society

Events Design and Experience Graham Berridge,2007-02-07 For the first time Events Design and Experience draws together the relationship between event design and the experience of consumers and participants It explores and analyses the event experience of the individual and how this can be controlled by design By drawing upon ongoing research conducted over several years into the experiences of groups and individuals who attend events this text will ask questions such as What was the rationale behind a particular event being designed in a certain way What was the actual experience of consumers How was the event materially delivered and did the experience created provide a satisfactory outcome How can experiences be understood via semiotics especially the physical elements of an event Structured in four sections Events Design and Experience discusses What are events An overall view of the industry its definitions and market demand It also covers an analysis of previous literature and draws upon real life events such as Wembley plc Leapfrog Corporate events and the British Cycling federation What is an event experience An explanation of the nature and stages of experience and the emergence of the experience industry itself Cases such as the Proms London Fashion week and the Nike Fun run are used to illustrate Designing Experiences Considers how design itself can impact upon the experience in some cases fundamentally changing the nature of experience It asks the question of how experiences are designed and what do they signify to the customer once complete Analysing Event Experiences Considers how experiences can be analysed and evaluated looking at the artificiality of the event and how this reflects in the experience of consumers Also includes a review of the psychological processes of perception and interpretation and how meaning and experience can be analysed and how we may begin to unravel the meanings attributed to certain events With international case studies throughout Events Design and Experience has a coherent user friendly structure including chapter summaries review exercises and topics for discussion to consolidate understanding

Gloriana and the Twins Hunt for Pirate Treasure John Last,2017-06-28 Long John Silver the villain in Robert Louis Stephenson s adventure story Treasure Island had a parrot This story is another episode in the life of that parrot She was hatched in the household of Queen Elizabeth Good Queen Bess and named Gloriana by Queen Elizabeth herself Captured by pirates she went ashore many years later with one of the pirates who opened a pawn shop at Port Adelaide Nine year old twins Jennifer and Christopher bought the parrot and discovered her conversational abilities Gloriana tells the twins she knows where the pirates treasure is buried Accompanied by their parents they set off to recover the treasure traveling across inland Australia from Adelaide to Northern Queensland pursued by three villains Jennifer is kidnapped by the villains who want to exchange her for Gloriana but Gloriana aided by squadrons of parrots rescues her After further adventures Jennifer Christopher and their parents recover the treasure which turns out to be ancient Chinese porcelain not gold silver and jewels The villains chase Gloriana and her human companions in a speedboat but its engine breaks down and the villains get horribly seasick The twins father hands the villains over to the police

Folk Songs of Australia John Meredith,Hugh Anderson,1987 The Shearers Evan McHugh,2015-07-29 The story of Australia told from the woolsheds For much of its history Australia has been described as riding on the sheep s back but if the country rode on anyone s back it was on the aching creaking flexing spines of Australian shearers Armed with their blades a sense of adventure and a relentless work ethic shearers have been a fundamental part of Australia s outback for centuries From legendary figures such as blade shearing record holder Jack Howe and fearless union man cum poet Julian Stuart to today s young guns having to adapt to a rapidly changing industry these rugged resilient and proud characters have influenced the social landscape and folklore of the country Shearers contributed to the formation of both the Labor and National parties while Australia s national song Waltzing Matilda was written on a Queensland sheep station Expert outback chronicler Evan McHugh author of bestselling titles such as The Drivers and Outback Heroes presents the definitive history of these men bringing to life the toil tumult and toughness of the shearing life and the effect it has had on Australia s national character

Temperament of Generations Jenny Lee, Philip Mead, Gerald Murnane, 1990 A collection of literary cultural and political writings published in Meanjin over the fifty years since its foundation together with archival material and editorial commentary This is a history of Meanjin told in its words This book traces the public achievements and private tribulations of one small magazine in its fifty year struggle to open up Australian culture to the modern world Through a selection of previously unpublished correspondence together with some of the path breaking writings that were first published in Meanjin this book takes us on a journey through the magazine s own tempestuous history and charts the cross currents and conflicts of postwar politics and culture Making Peoples James Belich, 2001 The first book in a major two volume general New Zealand history now published in paperback Along with its companion volume Paradise Reforged this book has been hailed as redefining New Zealand history Making Peoples is an account of how two huge fertile uninhabited Pacific islands became the focus of intensive human settlement first by the Polynesians and then much later by the British The book aims to challenge both Maori and Paheka traditions and create a new interpretation of their self images and their highly complex often brutal interaction Australian Folklore ,2005 A Filmography of the Third World Helen W. Cyr, 1976
