Denise Levertov Audrey T. Rodgers, 1993 Through careful analysis of Levertov s social verse she demonstrates that there is a consistency and pattern in what the artist herself has termed the poems of engagement Denise Levertov began her career in England as a lyric poet in the Romantic mode but even then was touched by the reductive nature of war revealed in her first published poem Listening to Distant Guns During the mid 1960s Levertov s social conscience notably her strong antiwar sentiment was reawakened by the Vietnam War This reawakening resulted in several volumes of poetry that mirrored her concerns with the war and political activism at home and her perplexity at the nature of human beings often great and compassionate but at times cruel and insensitive There exists a common thread in Levertov s pilgrimage from her beginning as a lyric poet to her status as an artist definitively in the world she has always responded to everything within the compass of her experience

Climbing Jacob's Ladder Louise Stowe Johns, 1990 CLIMBING JACOBS LADDER PB Edward D. Smith, 1988-06-17 This book is the story of the quest by blacks to find meaning in their historical experience and to build communities in America To give meaning to the traumas of the past many eighteenth century blacks turned to the teachings of the Old and New Testaments and proceeded even while enslaved to use churches to build independent communities It appears to me that in our continuing struggle for liberation on the ladder of life we have too often overlooked the central role that the black church has played in our history Introduction
