Special attention is given to Nazi regulation of the publishing industry and command over all forms of publication and dissemination from the most prestigious publishing houses to the smallest municipal and school libraries Barbian also shows that although the Nazis censored books not in line with Party aims many publishers and writers took advantage of loopholes in their system of control Supporting his work with exhaustive research of original sources Barbian describes a society in which everybody who was not openly opposed to it participated in the system whether as a writer an editor or even as an ordinary visitor to a library
