Developing Communication Theories Pb:

Developing Communication Theories Gerry Philipsen, Terrance L. Albrecht, 1997-08-14 Leading scholars present the principal findings and conclusions of a long term program of research into the nature and dynamics of human communication Well known authors present not only their own theories of human communication but also describe from personal vantage points the process by which they constructed their theories The authors narratives of their experiences in posing formulating and empirically investigating their questions provide invaluable instructional models for current students The vitality of this book derives from the communal focus on the theory and practice of language and other means of communicative conduct Each chapter is concerned with the pragmatics of human communication and describes an original and systematic study of the phenomena with recourse to data Together these chapters represent a range of important contemporary directions in communication studies

The Handbook of Global Interventions in Communication Theory Yoshitaka Miike, Jing Yin, 2022-03-10 Moving beyond the U S Eurocentric paradigm of communication theory this handbook broadens the intellectual horizons of the discipline by highlighting underrepresented especially non Western theorists and theories and identifies key issues and challenges for future scholarship Showcasing diverse perspectives the handbook facilitates active engagement in different cultural traditions and theoretical orientations that are global in scope but local in effect It begins by exploring past efforts to diversify the field continuing on to examine theoretical concepts models and principles rooted in local cumulative wisdom It does not limit itself to the mass interpersonal communication divide but rather seeks to frame theory as global and inclusive in scope The book is intended for communication researchers and advanced students with relevance to scholars with an interest in theory within information science library science social and cross cultural psychology multicultural education social justice and social ethics international relations development studies and political science

The Communication Age Autumn Edwards, Chad Edwards, Shawn T. Wahl, Scott A. Myers, 2012-08-09 We are in the communication age No matter who you are or how you communicate from baby boomers to millennials born digital or getting there we are all members of a society who connect through the internet not just to it From face to face to Facebook this book invites you to join the conversation about today s issues and have your voice heard This contemporary and engaging text is built from the ground up to bridge the gap and unite our diverse community It shows students how to apply foundational concepts while incorporating technology media and speech communication to foster civic engagement for a better future We are communication
