Developing Performance Indicators for Managing Maintenance Terry Wireman, 2005 This unique reference utilizes techniques based on other management measurement systems such as the balanced scorecard It also presents a maturing of measurement technique for maintenance and asset maintenance and development techniques allowing companies to be competitive into the future Developing Performance Indicators for Complex Organizations Ellen Ann Banaghan, 1991

Proceedings for the U.S. Department of Energy Office of Environmental Management Pollution Prevention Conference X, 1994 A Maintenance Management Framework for Municipal Buildings in Developing Economies Babatunde Fatai Ogunbayo, Clinton Aigbavboa, Wellington Thwala, 2023-02-03 The central aim of this book is to investigate and develop frameworks to aid effective maintenance management of municipal buildings in the education sector of developing economies Using the South African education sector as a case study this book provides readers with two major practical insights Firstly it focuses on the theoretical underpinnings of maintenance management research and introduces a maintenance management model through the development of a conceptual framework This framework aids in explaining the factors underpinning the maintenance of municipal buildings but can also be used in the assessment and management of other public buildings Secondly the book highlights and addresses theoretical gaps in existing studies essential for the maintenance management of buildings in developing economies providing a stimulus for future research The book will be of interest to researchers in construction management building technology estate management civil engineering architecture and urban and regional planning It is an essential manual for policymakers in the education sector built environment construction industry facility maintenance facility management and consultants at government ministries departments and agencies MDAs charged with maintenance management of public infrastructures and assets Current Issues in Irish Health Management Timothy J. Office of Women in Development, 1990 Report on the results and plans for the future of the U S Agency for International Development regarding gender issues Riskwork Michael Power, 2016-09-09 This collection of essays deals with the situated management of risk in a wide variety of organizational settings aviation mental health railway project management energy toy manufacture financial services chemicals regulation and NGOs Each chapter connects the analysis of risk studies with critical themes in organization studies more generally based on access to and observations of actors in the field The emphasis in these contributions is upon the variety of ways in which organizational actors in combination with a range of material technologies and artefacts such as safety reporting systems risk maps and key risk indicators accomplish and make sense of the normal work of managing risk riskwork In contrast to a preoccupation with disasters and accidents after the event the volume as whole is focused on the situationally specific character of routine risk management work It emerges that this riskwork is highly varied entangled with material artefacts which represent and construct risks and importantly is not confined to formal risk management departments or personnel Each chapter suggests that the distributed nature of this riskwork lives uneasily with formalized risk management protocols and accountability requirements In addition riskwork as an organizational process makes contested issues of identity and values readily visible These back stage back office encounters with risk are revealed as being as much emotional as they are rationally calculative Overall the collection combines constructivist sensibilities about risk objects with a micro sociological orientation to the study of organizations
