history of Romanian its writing system and major typological characteristics and the major patterns of allomorphy chapters in this volume explore a range of fascinatingly complex aspects of Romanian grammar whose structure and history have to date been largely inaccessible to the English speaking world Among the most distinctive morphological characteristics of Romanian discussed by the authors are its inflexional case system the highly unpredictable formation of the plural the existence of a non finite verb form that appears to be the continuation of the Latin supine the near absence of distinctive subjunctive morphology and the complex patterns of allomorphy brought about by successive sound change The frequently controversial origins of many of these developments have important implications for broader historical Romance linguistics and indeed for morphological theory more generally

Philosophy, Society and the Cunning of History in Eastern Europe Costica Bradatan, 2013-09-13 Philosophy Society and the Cunning of History in Eastern Europe charts the intellectual landscape of twentieth century East Central Europe under the unifying theme of precariousness as a mode of historical existence Caught between empires often marked by catastrophic historic events and grand political failures the countries of East Central Europe have for a long time developed a certain intellectual self representation a culture that not only helps them make some sense of such misfortunes but also protects them somehow from a collapse into nihilism An interdisciplinary study of this sophisticated culture of survival and endurance has been long overdue Not only is it charming and worth studying in its own right but with the re integration of the new Europe into the old one and the emergence on the Western European intellectual scene of many authors from the East such a culture will also shape the European mind of the 21st century This volume decodes and explores this culture of precariousness from the complementary angles of philosophy political theory intellectual history and literary studies Expert contributors look at a wide range of topics from philosophical martyrdom to collective suffering to geographical fatalism and explore the works of key authors in the field including Cioran Ko akowski Kert sz Bauman and i ek This book was originally published as a special issue of Angelaki The Journal of the Theoretical Humanities

Inside the Mechanisms of Romanian Modernization Florin Grancea, 2006-09-05 This book analyzes in the relation with the Romanian modernity the transformations of the Romanian public sphere political system and journalism from the beginning of the 19th Century up to 2005 The argumentation starts from the idea that the Romanian Enlightenment never had the chance to reach its purpose the creation of the individual as a human category As a consequence of this historical fact the Romanian modernity was not explored in all its dimensions and was not congruent with its western model of development Only after late 90 s signs for a surpassing historical backwardness were seen in Romania and only after the integration into EU become sure From this perspective this book looks onto the change in the modernization engine of Romania in late 90 s This change is happening as a transgression from a three steps modernization model in which the role of the elite is central to a two steps modernization model in which the role of the elite is minimal Because the three steps modernization model fits the idea of an acclamatory public sphere while the two steps modernization engine fits the concept of civil public sphere this book proves that the Romanian democracy is evolving from its totalitarian background to become a participative democracy The only question unanswered yet is if the elite and the mass media are willing to let Romania and its citizens to break up the ties with the totalitarian past Making of Modern Romanian Culture Alex Drace-Francis,2005 Nicolae Ceaușescu, Builder of Modern Romania and International Statesman Nicolae Ceaușescu,1983 A Concise History of Romanian Philosophy Nicolae Gogoneață,1983 Romanian Civilization ,1999 The Making of the Romanian Unitary National State 1918 Ștefan Pascu,1988 History of Romanian Arts Vasile Drăguț,Dan Grigorescu,1990 From Ancient Dacia to Modern Romania Mircea Mușat,Ion Ardeleanu,1985 Contributions to a Romanian History Symposium David B. Funderburk,Calvin C. Giurescu,Horia C. Matei,1974 Nasal Vowel Evolution in Romance Rodney Sampson,1999 This book provides a complete comparative nongallocentric account of nasality in all the Romance languages It demonstrates the central role of nasality in the history of sound changes in the languages of southern Europe In doing so it assembles a large amount of important philological and linguistic data previously dispersed and difficult to access and organizes it in a way that allows the author and will allow the reader to analyse it systematically Two introductory chapters discuss general principles of nasality and Romance nasalization Subsequent chapters are then devoted to each language The author considers all the standard varieties and a substantial range of non standard varieties and identifies broad characteristics of vowel nasalization in Romance In the the final chapter he makes a clear bridge between the data rich discussion of individual languages and the isolation of language universals This is will be the standard work in its field for many years It will be of central interest to linguists and philologists of Romance as well as to those concerned more generally to understand the causes patterns and processes of sound change
