The first reference guide to the extraordinary riches of women's writing through the ages and throughout the world Over 5 000 A-Z entries covering individuals works and movements Slavery and Colonial Rule in French West Africa Martin A.
Klein, 1998-07-28 Martin Klein's book is a history of slaves during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries in three former French colonies It investigates the changing nature of local slavery over time and the evolving French attitudes towards it through the phases of trade conquest and colonial rule The heart of the study focuses on the period between 1876 and 1922 when a French army composed largely of slave soldiers took massive numbers of slaves in the interior while in areas near the coast hesitant actions were taken against slave raiding trading and use After 1900 the French withdrew state support of slavery and as many as a million slaves left their masters A second exodus occurred after World War I when soldiers of slave origin returned home The renegotiation of relationships between those who remained and their masters carries the story into the contemporary world Tree of Life Maryse Condé, 1993 It is impossible to read her novels and not come away from them with both a sadder and more exhilarating understanding of the human heart THE NEW YORK TIMES BOOK REVIEW the world is old but the future springs from the past Mamadou Kouyate Sundiata An Epic of Old Mali a d 1217 1257 Two major questions of the ages are Who am I and Where am I going From the moment the first African slaves were dragged onto these shores these questions have become increasingly harder for African Americans to answer To find the answers you first must discover where you have been you must go back to your family tree but you must dig through rocky layers of lost information of slavery to find your roots During the Great Migration in the 1940s when African Americans fled the strangling hands of Jim Crow for the relative freedoms of the North many tossed away or buried the painful memories of their past As we approach the new millennium African Americans are reaching back to uncover where we have been to help us determine where we are going Finding a Place Called Home is a comprehensive guide to finding your African American roots and tracing your family tree Written in a clear conversational and accessible style this book shows you step by step how to find out who your family was and where they came from Beginning with your immediate family Dr Dee Parmer Woodtor gives you all the necessary tools to dig up your past how to interview family members how to research your past using census reports slave schedules property deeds and courthouse records and how to find these records Using the Internet for genealogical research is also discussed in this timely and necessary book Finding a Place Called Home helps you find your family tree and helps place it in the context of the garden of African American people As you learn how to find your own history you learn the history of all Africans in the Americas including the Caribbean and how to benefit from a new understanding of your family s history and your people s Finding a Place Called Home also discusses the growing family reunion movement and other ways to celebrate newly discovered family history Tomorrow will always lie ahead of us if we don t forget yesterday Finding a Place Called Home shows how to retrieve yesterday to free you for all of your tomorrows Finding a Place Called Home An African American Guide to Genealogy and Historical Identitytakes us back step by step including Methods of searching and interpreting records such as marriage birth and death certificates census reports slave schedules church records and Freedmen s Bureau information Interviewing and taking inventory of family members Using the Internet for genealogical purposes Information on tracing Caribbean ancestry Black Writers Sharon Malinowski,1994 This text presents comprehensive coverage of more than 400 of the most studied black authors from the Harlem Renaissance social and political activists and foreign black writers of interest to American Audiences Multiculturalism & Hybridity in African Literatures African Literature Association.
