Developing Baseline Communicatio:

Developing Baseline Communication Skills Catherine Delamain, Jill Spring, 2018-10-03 Developing Baseline Communication Skills is a practical resource designed to fit with baseline assessments in primary school. The second edition of this bestselling resource contains a programme of games and activities to foster personal and social development and promote language and literacy skills in 3-5 year olds. The book seeks to address language and communication difficulties for children coming into reception class by providing a range of fun and engaging activities. Suitable for whole classes or small groups of children, the activities focus on both personal social emotional development as well as language and literacy in areas such as body language, independence, turn taking, listening, speaking and auditory memory. Features include 200 games and activities which are differentiated for different ages and levels of ability. A clear aim, equipment list and instructions for each activity. Photocopiable templates for ease of use. Supplementary resource sheets including pictures and scripts to use with the activities. Now fully revised and updated in line with current policy and legislation, this book is suitable for young children in any school setting including nurseries, playgroups and reception classes. It also includes material that may be used as an effective part of a speech and language therapy programme in consultation with a therapist. This is a unique manual that will be an essential addition to the materials used by professionals working with young children. Developing

Baseline Communication Skills Catherine Delamain, Jill Spring, 2017-07-05 Developing Baseline Communication Skills is a practical resource designed to fit with the baseline assessments that are now part of the national curriculum in schools. It contains a programme of games and activities aimed at fostering personal and social development and promoting language and early literacy skills. Teachers often express concern about the many children who enter reception classes lacking the listening, understanding and speaking skills necessary to make a successful start to their school years. This resource seeks to address some of these problems by offering Games and activities suitable for four to five year olds in nursery education, playgroups, reception classes and those attending speech language therapy clinics. These are appropriate for both mainstream and special schools. There are two hundred games and activities graded into level of difficulty for whole classes or smaller groups with a key to indicate where each activity can be easily incorporated into the existing school curriculum. It has a clear aim and full instructions for the games which are easy to organise and with equipment kept to a minimum. Photocopiable templates are included where necessary. It includes activities that can be carried out between teachers, classroom assistants or volunteers with simple record sheets for optional use. The book includes materials that may be used as an effective part of a speech and language programme in consultation with a speech and language therapist. This is a unique manual that should be an essential addition to the materials used by every professional working with young children. Set: Developing
