BBC and Ultra-Modern Music, 1922-1936 Jennifer Ruth Doctor,1999 This book first published in 2000 examines the BBC s campaign to raise cultural awareness of British mass audiences in the early days of radio As a specific case it focuses on policies and plans behind transmissions of music by composers associated with Arnold Schoenberg s circle between 1922 when the BBC was founded and spring 1936 when Edward Clark a former Schoenberg pupil and central figure in BBC music resigned from the Corporation This study traces and analyses the BBC s attempts to manipulate critical and public responses to this repertory The book investigates three interrelated aspects of early BBC history Policy decisions relating to contemporary music transmissions are examined to determine why precious broadcast time was devoted to this repertory Early personnel structures are reconstructed to investigate the responsibilities attitudes and interests of those who influenced music broadcasting Finally broadcasts of Second Viennese School works are examined in detail Bbc year book, 1947 British broadcasting corporation,1947 The BBC and national identity in Britain, 1922-53 Thomas Hajkowski,2013-07-19 Examining the ways in which the BBC constructed and disseminated British national identity during the second quarter of the twentieth century this book is the first study that focuses in a comprehensive way on how the BBC through its radio programs tried to represent what it meant to be British The BBC and national identity in Britain offers a revision of histories of regional broadcasting in Britain that interpret it as a form of cultural imperialism The regional organization of the BBC and the news and creative programming designed specifically for regional listeners reinforced the cultural and historical distinctiveness of Scotland Wales and Northern Ireland The BBC anticipated and perhaps encouraged the development of the hybrid dual identities characteristic of contemporary Britain This book will be of interest to scholars and students of nationalism and national identity British imperialism mass media and media history and the four nations
