Featuring Post-National Spain. Film Essays. Andrés Zamora, 2016-05-06 The book explores post Franco Spanish film s tacit or explicit but always resolute essays from 1975 to 2000 to make over Spain s national in fact post national identity

New Basque Gothic Rebecca Wynne-Walsh, 2025-12-02 This monograph addresses the twenty first century upsurge in Gothic screen media emanating from the Autonomous Basque Community Euskadi in Northern Spain The book focuses on online video sharing streaming and social media platforms demonstrating the impact of multi national co production and distribution on the development of Basque film production looking to the future of regional production in the digital era This monograph fills a critical gap presenting Basque Gothic screen media as a regionalist challenge to national models of cinema and identity Wynne Walsh establishes Basque Gothic as an expression of transgenerational trauma engendered by a history of state suppression and socio political violence This regional iteration of the mode is addressed as a window into community perception and projection While this project centres a Basque case study it establishes a model for the reimagination of critical approaches to global twenty first century screen cultures

Basque Cinema Rob Stone, Cinema has always been a vital medium for articulating the Basque region s unique identity and politics The first definitive study of Basque cinema this book provides a systematic analysis of the key Basque films directors and cinematic institutions Its narrative moves from the romanticised Basque Country travelogues of Pathe to the coded oppositional aesthetics of Franco era films from the post Franco new wave supported by regional government funding to the boom in auteurist cinema during the 1980s and 1990s It also charts the contemporary impact of the film institute Basque Filmoteca and television channel Euskal Telebista in producing and disseminating Basque language films Based on archival research close readings of films and in depth interviews with influential figures in the Basque film scene this book is essential reading for world film scholars and cultural historians

Spanish Erotic Cinema Santiago Fouz-Hernandez, 2017-04-13 The first comprehensive scholarly study of Spanish erotic cinema from the 1920s until the present day This book covers a significant part of the history of Spanish film from the 1920s until the present day Starting with a study of the kiss in silent films the volume explores homoerotic narratives in the crusade films of the 1940s the commodification of bodies in the late Franco period and the so called destape literally aundressing period that followed the abolition of censorship during the democratic transition Reclaiming the importance of Spanish erotic cinema as a genre in itself a range of international scholars demonstrate how the explicit depiction of sex can be a useful tool to illuminate current and historic social issues including ageism colonialism domestic violence immigration nationalisms or women and LGBT rights Covering a wide range of cinematic genres including comedy horror and melodrama this book provides an innovative and provocative overview of Spanish cinema history and society in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Contributors Brad Epps Cambridge University Sally Faulkner University of Exeter Santiago Fouz Hernandez Durham University Antonio LA zaro Reboll University of Kent Annabel Marton Dartmouth College Alejandro Melero Salvador Universidad Carlos III in Madrid Jorge Páez University of Texas Austin Carolina Sanabria University of Costa Rica Rob Stone University of Birmingham Tom Whittaker University of Liverpool Eva Woods Peir A Vassar College Sarah Wright Royal Holloway University of London Barbara Zecchi University of Massachusetts Amherst

Daniel Calparsoro Ann Davies, 2013-07-19 Daniel Calparsoro a director who has provided a crucial contribution to the contemporary scene in Spanish and Basque cinema has provoked strong reactions from the critics Reductively dismissed as a purveyor of crude violence by those critics lamenting a lost golden age of Spanish filmmaking Calparsoro's films reveal in fact a more complex interaction with trends and traditions in both Spanish and Hollywood cinema This book is the first full length study of the director's work from his early social realist films set in the Basque Country to his later forays into the genres of the war and horror film It offers an in depth film by film analysis while simultaneously exploring the function of the director in the contemporary Spanish context the tension between directors and critics and the question of national cinema in an area the Basque Country of heightened national and regional sensitivities

Basque Cinema Rob Stone, Maria Pilar Rodriguez, 2015-09-29 Cinema has always been a vital medium for articulating the Basque region's unique identity and politics The first definitive study of Basque cinema this book provides a systematic analysis of the key Basque films directors and cinematic institutions Its narrative moves from the romanticised Basque Country travelogues of Pathe to the coded oppositional aesthetics of Franco era films from the post Franco new wave supported by regional government funding to the boom in auteurist cinema during the 1980s and 1990s It also charts the contemporary impact of the film institute Basque Fimoteka and television channel Euskal Telebista in producing and disseminating Basque language films Based on archival research close readings of films and in depth interviews with influential figures in the Basque film scene this book is essential reading for world film scholars and cultural historians

Constructing Identity in Contemporary Spain Jo Labanyi, 2002 This volume is designed to further the study of Spanish culture in the broad sense of the network of symbolic systems through which social groups construct and negotiate a sense of identity or identities The emphasis is on culture as a set of practices rather than as a corpus of texts The aim is to introduce readers to current theoretical debates in a range of disciplines as well as to inform them about specific areas of twentieth century Spanish culture The four sections on Ethnicity and Migration Gender Popular Culture and The Local and the Global cover ethnography music TV advertising popular literature medical discourse film posters museums and urban development
