Cranborne Chase:

The Cranborne Chase Path Edward R. Griffiths,1995      Pitt Rivers Mark Bowden,1991-08-30 Mark Bowden has written an entertaining and thoroughly researched biography of General Augustus Henry Lane Fox Pitt Rivers 1827 1900

The Wiltshire Archaeological and Natural History Magazine ,1885      Landscape, Monuments and Society John Barrett,Richard J. Bradley,Martin T. Green,1991-02-22 Cranborne Chase in central southern England is the area where British field archaeology developed in its modern form The site of General Pitt Rivers pioneering excavations in the nineteenth century Cranborne Chase also provides a microcosm of virtually all the major types of field monument present in southern England as a whole Much of the archaeological material has fortuitously survived offering the fullest chronological cover of any part of the prehistoric British landscape Martin Green began working in this region in 1968 and was joined by John Barrett and Richard Bradley in 1977 for a fuller programme of survey and excavation that lasted for nearly ten years In this important study they apply some of the questions in prehistory to one of the first regions of the country to be studied in such detail The book is a regional study of long term change in British prehistory and contains a unique collection of data A landmark in the archaeological literature it will be essential reading for students and scholars of British prehistory and social and historical geography and also for all those involved with archaeological methods      Trees Beyond the Wood (colour)

Ian D. Rotherham,Christine Handley,Mauro Agnoletti,Tomasz Samojlik,2013-07-05 Trees Beyond the Wood was written for a conference organised to celebrate twenty years of work since the first major conference on the theme of ancient trees and woodlands held in Sheffield UK It was held almost ten years after the landmark 2003 Working and Walking in the Footsteps of Ghosts event which started to raise issues and challenge assumptions about what is ancient or natural and what is meant by the terms wood or woodland Since then on going work in a range of disciplines across ecology biology landscape history archaeology forestry and nature conservation has continued the process of research and evaluation across the subject area The collection of papers by contributors from across Europe reflects this broad range of interests and disciplines      Land and People Michael J. Allen,Niall Sharples,Terry O'Connor,2009-09-10 This volume is derived in concept from a conference held in honour of John Evans by the School of History and Archaeology and The Prehistoric Society at Cardiff University in March 2006 It brings together papers that address themes and landscapes on a variety of levels They cover geographical methodological and thematic areas that were of interest to and had been studied by John Evans The volume is divided into five sections which echo themes of importance in British prehistory They include papers on aspects of environmental archaeology experiments and philosophy new research on the nature of woodland on the chalklands of southern England coasts and islands people process and social order and snails and shells a strong part of John Evans career This volume presents a range of papers examining people s interaction with the landscape in all its forms The papers provide a diverse but cohesive picture of how archaeological landscapes are viewed within current research frameworks and approaches while also paying tribute to the innovative and inspirational work of one of the leading protagonists of environmental archaeology and the holistic approach to landscape interpretation Cranborne Chase Desmond Hawkins,1993-12-01 Dorset (Slow Travel) Alexandra Richards,2024-08-28 This new thoroughly updated fourth edition of Dorset Slow Travel Bradt's popular and distinctive guide offers in depth exploration of one of England's most popular counties Author Alexandra Richards Dorset born and bred shares local insights to offer a wider more personal selection of places to explore than any other guide including attractions known only to locals who normally keep the county's treasures to themselves The result encourages you to slow down and appreciate why this county deserves repeat visits Dorset is quintessential rural England rolling hills thatched houses winding lanes and stunning stately homes Enchanting Dorset landscapes described in Thomas Hardy's 19th century novels are largely unchanged and are likely to remain so given that Dorset enjoys England's highest proportion of conservation areas The county is trimmed by the spectacular Jurassic Coast starring locations such as Durdle Door and Lulworth Cove England's first natural World Heritage Site whose cliffs are continuously revealing their prehistoric fossilised secrets History buffs meanwhile will love innumerable sites of archaeological interest including Britain's largest Iron Age hillfort Maiden Castle Practical information covers where and what to eat where and what to see and how to get around This fourth edition integrates recent changes across the county covers additional villages in north Dorset celebrates child friendly activities introduces local food and drink producers artisans and community projects and suggests new walks Discover Dorset's award winning vodka made from milk discover what really goes on at the Filly Loo Festival challenge your tastebuds at the Great Dorset Chilli Festival hunt fossils on beaches featured in the biopic film Ammonite where Kate Winslet portrays world famous palaeontologist Mary Anning learn where never to say the word rabbits and why discover the Lyme Regis rubber duck race and get to grips with the fabulous Dorset dialect Whatever your interest be it local food tours of award winning wineries horseriding relaxing on award winning beaches or spectacular coastal hikes Dorset Slow Travel remains the essential companion guide for both enjoying the obvious sites and getting off the beaten track to understand what really makes this gorgeous varied county tick
