Alexander Zschokke:

Art and Artist Mundt Ernest, 1956 Art and Artist Rico Lebrun, 2023-11-15 The motivation for this volume arose from a desire to bridge the gap between artists and their audience facilitating a deeper understanding of the artist's purpose and process Rico Lebrun during an evening discussion in San Miguel de Allende highlighted the importance of giving artists a platform to articulate in their own words the thoughts and feelings underlying their creations While art communicates through form color sound or texture words can sometimes clarify the artist's unique perspective on style technique and life itself Just as people in other fields seek understanding and respect from their peers artists also face the challenge of gaining acceptance especially when their work diverges from popular norms This divergence can lead to a defensive resistance from audiences who often prefer the familiar over the unsettling unknown that avant garde art might represent In our society this tension frequently casts the artist as an outlier one who disrupts the comfort of the present by intuitively reaching into future possibilities New ideas in art like those in science require an openness to the unfamiliar yet audiences may resist feeling overwhelmed by the demands of confronting something new The artist however hopes for more than superficial applause or detached critique They seek a resonant response that validates the enduring impact of their work This volume therefore is intended to foster a more profound dialogue not just between artist and audience but also among artists themselves enhancing mutual understanding and respect for the creative journey This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1956 Alexander Zschokke Ulrich Christoffel, 1957 Who's who in Switzerland Including the Principality of Liechtenstein International Publications Service, 1981 Issues for 1950-51 include Index of Organizations associations and institutions Who's who in Switzerland Including the Principality of Liechtenstein , 1965 Issues for 1950-51 include Index of Organizations associations and institutions Index to Art Periodicals Art Institute of Chicago.
