ALEXIS AKRITHAKIS, 1967 Exploring Modern Greek as a Second, Foreign, and Heritage Language Marina Mattheoudakis, Christina Maligkoudi, 2024-09-10 Exploring Modern Greek as a Second Foreign and Heritage Language considers the diverse educational contexts within which Modern Greek is taught and how these diverse contexts substantially alter the requirements for materials teacher training and instructional practices Divided into three parts this book systematically examines the teaching of Greek as a second foreign and heritage language for students in Greece and further afield The methodologies vary from interviews to case studies and introduce innovative approaches such as experiential learning creative writing and theatrical practices designed to create a more holistic learning experience The in depth studies provided in this collection are designed to raise awareness of the unique challenges and different needs arising in the Greek language classroom and the implications for teachers and learners This book will be essential reading for educators

researchers and policy makers interested in the teaching of Greek as a second foreign or heritage language The Routledge Companion to Surrealism Kirsten Strom, 2022-11-08 This book provides a conceptual and global overview of the field of Surrealist studies Methodologically the companion considers Surrealism's many achievements but also its historical shortcomings to illuminate its connections to the historical and cultural moments from which it originated and to assess both the ways in which it still shapes our world in inspiring ways and the ways in which it might appear problematic as we look back at it from a twenty first century vantage point Contributions from experienced scholars will enable professors to teach the subject more broadly by opening their eyes to aspects of the field that are on the margins of their expertise and it will enable scholars to identify new areas of study in their own work by indicating lines of research at a tangent to their own The companion will reflect the interdisciplinarity of Surrealism by incorporating discussions pertaining to the visual arts as well as literature film and political and intellectual history Alexis Akrithakis Folker Skulima, 2003

Critical Times, Critical Thoughts Natasha Lemos, Eleni Yannakakis, 2016-01-14 While no member of the public could have missed the Greek crisis it has been represented only by the refraction in journalism of the views of politicians economists and international bureaucrats The voice of artists the antennae of the race has been so far unheard In specially commissioned essays by major Greek writers and critics which appear for the first time in any language the reader of this book will find new insights into the crisis its causes and its wider ramifications It will interest not only students of Greece but anyone concerned with the highly topical and intertwined issues of nationalism historical memory otherness migration and xenophobia By being simultaneously a reflection on and a reflection of a society in deep crisis this book also offers a model for future studies

Beat Literature in a Divided Europe, 2018-12-24 Beat Literature in Europe offers twelve in depth analyses of how European authors and intellectuals on both sides of the Iron Curtain read translated and appropriated American Beat literature The chapters combine textual analysis with discussions on the role Beat had in popular music art and different subcultures The book participates in the transnational turn that has gained in importance during the past years in literary studies looking at transatlantic connections through the eyes of European authors artists and intellectuals and showing how Beat became a cluster of texts images and discussions with global scope At the same time it provides vivid examples of how national literary fields in Europe evolved during the cold war era Contributors are Thomas Antonic Franca Bellarsi Frida Forsgren Santiago Rodriguez Guerrero Strachan J zsef Havasr ti Tiit Hennoste Benedikt Hjartarson Petra James Nuno Neves Maria Nikopoulou Harri Veivo Dorota Walczak Delanois Gregory Watson Greek culture yearbook 06-07 ,2007
