Narrative Deconstructions of Gender in Works by Audrey Thomas, Daphne Marlatt, and Louise Erdrich Caroline Rosenthal, 2003 Study of three North American women novelists combining the standpoints of gender studies and narratology By analyzing the works of Thomas Marlatt and Erdrich through the lenses of subjectivity gender studies and narratology Caroline Rosenthal brings to light new perspectives on their writings Although all three authors write metafiction that challenge literary realism and dominant views of gender the forms of their counter narratives vary In her novel Intertidal Life Thomas traces the disintegration of an identity through narrative devices that unearth ruptures and contradictions in stories of gender In contrast Marlatt in Ana Historic challenges the regulatory fiction of heterosexuality She offers her protagonist a way out into a new order that breaks with the law of the father creating a monstrous text that explores the possibilities of a lesbian identity In her tetralogy of novels made up of Love Medicine Tracks The Beet Queen and The Bingo Palace Erdrich resists definite readings of femininity altogether By drawing on trickster narratives she creates an open system of gendered identities that is dynamic and unfinalizable positing the most fragmented worldview as the most enduring By applying gender and narrative theory to nuanced analysis of the texts Rosenthal's study elucidates the correlation between gender identity formation and narrative Caroline Rosenthal is Professor and Chair of American Literature at the Friedrich Schiller University in Jena Germany Her book Narrative Deconstructions of Gender was published by Camden House in 2003

James Joyce's Early Works in Ireland's Textual Cultures Niels Caul, 2025-10-16 Putting Joyce back into dialogue with other Irish writers of his generation this book shows that his experiments with narrative styles and structures were a renegotiation rather than a rejection of earlier Irish conventions While Joyce is undoubtedly the best known other Irish writers were also influenced by European movements in naturalism and decadence that were shaping European Modernism as it emerged in the 1890s Reading Joyce's works in the context of often forgotten contemporaries such as George Moore George Egerton Hannah Lynch Shan Bullock Forrest Reid and Charlotte O'Conor Eccles enhances our understanding of their works as well as Joyce's both thematically and stylistically and shines a much needed light on previously critically underexamined writers By focusing on the transformation of Joyce from Irish writer to Modernist artist we gain crucial insights into why many of Joyce s contemporaries are not read today despite their initial popularity This book utilises Joyce s troubled publication and reception history to identify the wider trends of the Irish short story cycle and Bildungsroman thereby enhancing readers understanding of the literary marketplace for Irish books in this period
