The Psychiatric Writings from Alienation and Freedom Frantz Fanon,2020-09-17 Frantz Fanon's psychiatric career was crucial to his thinking as an anti colonialist writer and activist Much of his iconic work was shaped by his experiences working in hospitals in France Algeria and Tunisia The writing collected here was written from 1951 to 1960 in tandem with his political work and reveals much about how Fanon's thought developed showing that for him psychiatry was part of a much wider socio political struggle His political revolutionary and literary lives should not then be separated from the psychiatric practice and writings that shaped his thinking about oppression alienation and the search for freedom

The Plays from Alienation and Freedom Frantz Fanon,2020-09-17 Prior to becoming a psychiatrist Frantz Fanon wanted to be a playwright and his interest in dialogue dramatisation and metaphor continued throughout his writing and career His passion for theatre developed during the years that he was studying medicine and in 1949 he wrote the plays The Drowning Eye Le silence and Parallel Hands Les Mains parallèles This first English translation of the works gives us a Fanon at his most lyrical experimental and provocative

The Political Writings from Alienation and Freedom Frantz Fanon,2020-09-17 Frantz Fanon's political impact is difficult to overestimate His anti colonialist philosophical and revolutionary writings were among the most influential of the 20th century The essays articles and notes published in this volume cover the most politically active period of his life and encapsulate the breadth depth and urgency of his writings In particular they clarify and amplify his much debated views on violent resistance These works provide new complexity to our understanding of Fanon and reveal just how relevant his thinking is to the contemporary world and how important his ideas are to changing it

Alienation and Freedom Robert Blauner,1970 A History of English Law: (1066-1485)

The mediaeval common law Sir William Searle Holdsworth,1923 Alienation and freedom : the factory worker and his industry Robert Blauner,1973 From a Marxist Feminist Point of View Nancy Holmstrom,2024-07-15 This book shows the fruitfulness of approaching key philosophical and political questions from a Marxist feminist point of view The idea is that different modes of production like capitalism and feudalism have structures relations of production which shape and limit the potentials for human emancipation in general and women s freedom in particular Capitalism is then understood as a framework within which other relations of oppression operate with more or less salience in different times and places Each of the essays takes this basic approach to key philosophical questions about freedom rationality and human nature

A History of English Law: Book II (449-1066). Anglo-Saxon antiquities. Book III (1066-1485). The mediaeval common law Sir William Searle Holdsworth,1923 Being and Freedom John Skorupski,2021 Being and Freedom is a panoramic account of ethics in Europe from the French Revolution to the end of the nineteenth century John Skorupski explores the interaction of philosophical ideas with social influences across Europe during this period including Kantian ethics Hegel s holism and the British utilitarian tradition

The Virtual Point of Freedom Lorenzo Chiesa,2016-09-15 The principal motif that runs throughout The Virtual Point of Freedom is a confrontation with the discourse of freedom or more specifically the falsely transgressive ideal of a total emancipation that would know no constraints Far from delineating a supposed subject of freedom that would allegedly overcome alienation once and for all the seven chapters in Chiesa s book seek to unfold an innovative reading of the dialectical coincidence between dis alienation and re alienation in politics aesthetics and religion using psychoanalysis as a privileged critical tool Topics include Pier Paolo Pasolini s attack on the visual and biological degeneration of bodies brought about by pleasure seeking liberal consumerism Giorgio Agamben s and Slavoj i ek s conflicting negotiations with the Christian tradition of poverty and inappropriateness as potential redemption and Alain Badiou s inability to develop a philosophical anthropology that could sustain a coherent politics of emancipation The book concludes by sketching out the figure of the partisan a subject who makes it possible to conceive of an intersection between provisional morality and radical politics
