Difficult Loves Italo Calvino, 1984 In a collection of stories written during the 1940s and 1950s the author captures moments of revelation in the lives of ordinary people instants blending recognition and alarm as deceptions and illusions are laid bare

Difficult Games Franco Ricci, 2006-01-01 Examining Calvino's literary experiments as a young artist in search of his narrative voice Ricci explores the psychological and existential motivations intrinsically linked to the writer's need for textual and systemic patterning I racconti contains some of Calvino's least read works yet these early stories address issues present scenarios and generate a growing variation of themes that form the heart of Calvino's narrative discourse Ricci points out that melancholy permeates Calvino's works even at his most playful He suggests that if Calvino's highest merit was his sense of wonder and his urge to transform and defeat obscurantism with all the joy he could muster one must remember that his work expressed often painfully the limits of human rationalism I racconti can thus be read as a catalogue of the anxieties of both the young author and postwar Italian society

Image, Eye and Art in Calvino Birgitte Grundtvig, 2017-07-05 Few recent writers have been as interested in the cross over between texts and visual art as Italo Calvino 1923-85 Involved for most of his life in the publishing industry he took as much interest in the visual as in the textual aspects of his own and other writers' books In this volume twenty international Calvino experts including Barenghi Battistini Belpoliti Hofstadter Ricci Scarpa and others consider the many facets of the interplay between the visual and textual in Calvino's works from the use of colours in his fiction to the influence of cartoons from the graphic qualities of the book covers themselves to the significance of photography and landscape in his fiction and non-fiction The volume is appropriately illustrated with images evoked by Calvino's major texts
