Dynamic Dancing Cass:

Dancing Class Linda J. Tomko, 2000-01-22 This look at Progressive era women and innovative cultural practices blazes a new trail in dance scholarship Choice Outstanding Academic Book of the Year From salons to dance halls to settlement houses new dance practices at the turn of the twentieth century became a vehicle for expressing cultural issues and negotiating matters of gender By examining master narratives of modern dance history this provocative and insightful book demonstrates the cultural agency of Progressive era dance practices Tomko blazes a new trail in dance scholarship by interconnecting U S History and dance studies the first to argue successfully that middle class U S women promoted a new dance practice to manage industrial changes crowded urban living massive immigration and interchange and repositioning among different classes Choice Femininity, Feminism and Recreational Pole Dancing Kerry Griffiths, 2015-11-19 This book explores the phenomenon of pole dancing as an increasingly popular fitness and leisure activity for women It moves beyond previous debates surrounding the empowering or degrading nature of pole dancing classes and instead explores the complexities of these concepts and highlights that women participating in this practice cannot be seen as one dimensional Femininity Feminism and Recreational Pole Dancing explores the construction negotiation and presentation of a gendered and classed identity and self through participation in pole dancing the meaning of pole dancing as a fitness practice for women and the concepts of community and friendship as developed through classes Using empirical research the book uncovers the stories and experiences of the women who participate in these classes and examines what the mainstreaming of this type of sexualised dance means for the women who practice it Pole dancing is shown to be a practice in which female identities are negotiated performed and enacted and this book positions pole dancing as an activity which both reinforces but also presents some challenge to ideas of feminism and femininity for the women that participate Women s participation in pole dancing is described in a discourse of choice and control yet this book argues that the decision to participate is somewhat constructed by the advertising of these classes as enabling women to create a particular desirable self which is perpetuated throughout our culture as the ideal Exploring the ways in which women attempt to manage impressions and present themselves as respectable the book examines how women wish to dis identify with both women who work as strippers and women who are feminist seeing both identities as contradictory to the feminine image that they pursue The book explores the capacity of these classes to offer women some feelings of agency but challenges the idea that participating in pole dancing can offer collective empowerment The book ultimately argues that women s participation can be viewed both in terms of their active engagement and enjoyment of these classes and in terms of the structures and pressures which continue to shape their lives This timely publication explores the complexity of the pole dancing phenomenon and highlights a range of questions surrounding this activity as a leisure form It will be a valuable contribution to those interested in women s and gender studies cultural studies feminism sociology and leisure studies Dynamic Cartography María José Martínez

Sánchez,2020-07-28 Dynamic Cartography analyses the works of Rudolf Laban Lawrence Halprin Anne Bogart Adolphe Appia Cedric Price Joan Littlewood and H lio Oiticica They are practitioners who have worked on different areas of enquiry from the existing relations between body and space through movement events or actions but whose work has never been presented from this perspective or in this context The work and methodologies set up by these practitioners enable us to develop a practice based exploration Some of the experiments in the book Micro actions I and II explore the presence of the body in the space In Kinetography I and II Laban s dance notation system kinetography is used to create these dynamic cartographies Kinetography III proposes the analysis of an urban public space through the transcription of the body movement contained on it The series Dynamic Cartographies I II and III analyses movement in geometrically controlled spaces through the Viewpoints techniques by Anne Bogart Finally Woosh and Trellick Tales present two projects in which performance is applied in order to analyse and understand urban and architectural space
