City Executives:

City Executives David N. Ammons, Charledean Newell, 1988-12-27 This study explores the work life of mayors city managers and other top executives in city government Based on a survey of 527 city executives and enlivened with numerous anecdotes the book documents time allocation patterns and work routines City Executives makes comparisons with previous studies to show how city executives compare with managers in other types of organizations The authors also note how city managers role has changed over a 20 year period City executives are shown to be like their private sector counterparts For example they function at a relentless pace are frequently interrupted in their work and are generally overburdened However because city workers operate in an environment open to public scrutiny they are left with only a minority of their professional time to attend to matters that they describe as priorities Instead they must constantly respond to intergovernmental demands emergencies and the needs of citizens and legislative officials Man and His World: Society tomorrow Baker Brownell, 1929 Transactions Society of Automotive Engineers, 1916 Yearbook International City Managers' Association, 1923 Journal of the Western Society of Engineers Western Society of Engineers (Chicago, Ill.), 1925 Official Proceedings for the Annual Convention American Society for Municipal Improvements, 1926 List of members in each vol except vol for 1924 The Radio Dealer , 1926 Industrial Management John Robertson Dunlap, Arthur Van Vlissingen, John Michael Carmody, 1920 Management and Administration in Manufacturing Industries , 1925 *Cleveland Education Survey.
